Warships Move Into Reds' Path

Carrier, 4 Destroyers Added To Pacific Anti-Sub Fleet

By JAMES LEE

WASHINGTON—(INS)—The Navy yesterday ordered the aircraft carrier Bataan and four destroyers to the Pacific to help counter the threat posed by Russian submarine superiority.

The 11,000-ton Bataan is described officially as "an anti-submarine carrier" and the ship's assignment to the Pacific followed a warning to Congress by Admr. Forrest P. Sherman, Chief of Naval Operations, that Soviet Submarines menace U. S. security.

Sherman testified that the Russian undersea fleet constitutes a greater perial than did the entire Japanese Navy at the outbreak of World War II. Other military authorities estimate Russia has at least 270 active submarines, many in the Pacific.

The Bataan will bring to six the total of U. S. aircraft carriers assigned to the Pacific Fleet. Three are 27,000-ton ships and two are small "jeep" carriers for antisubmarine warefare.

Pacific Fleet carrier strength now is double that of last year. Sherman ordered the 27,000-ton carrier Philippine Sea and the 10,000-ton flattop Sicily to the Pacific Fleet last month.

The Navy also has added a total of 10 destroyers to western ocean forces, bringing to 54 the number of "sub killers" in that area. Spokesmen said additional destroyers will be sent to the Pacific soon.

Under the new assignments, approximately 40 percent of the Navy's combat strength will be concentrated in the Pacific.

Though the Bataan will be attached to Carrier Division 15, based at San Diego, Cal., her orders are expected to take her on scouting expeditions far from U. S. shores. The date of the carrier's arrival at her new station is being kept secret.

The destroyers involved in the transfer of combat-vessel strength are the MacKenzie, the E. G. Small, the Hanson and the H. J Thomas.

The Navy said special equipment, including the latest devices for use against enemy submarines, is being installed in the Bataan at the Philadelphia naval shipyard.

Sherman, before his departure this week on a quick European inspection tour, told Congress that funds allocated to the Navy are "far from providing adequate means for combating a submarine threat."

Chairman Vinson, Democrat, Georgia, of the House Armed Services Committee, echoed Sherman's warning and introduced legislation for a half-billion dollar naval construction and modernization project with emphasis on submarine warfare.

Solons Ask Gen. Ike To Explain

Senators Call Him On His Concern Over Armaments

WASHINGTON — (UP) — Gen. Eisenhower has been summoned to explain to an aroused and disturbed Congress what he meant when he said he is "deeply concerned" by the extent of U. S. disarmament.

A Senate Military Appropriations Subcommittee voted unanimously yesterday to call the General, but set no date for his appearance. The call was issued as the nation's two top Air Force officials asked the subcommittee to restore a $43,000,000 House cut in their budget.

Eisenhower said in New York Thursday night that "America has already disarmed to the extent—in some directions even beyond the extent—that I, with deep concern for her safety, could possibly advise." He said he was particularly concerned in view of Russia's rearmament.

His remark caused both concern and surprise among members of Congress. Some thought the General either had been "misconstrued" or that something had happened to change his mind in recent months.

Eisenhower spent three months here last year helping to prepare the $13,911,127,000 budget that the armed forces sent to Congress for fiscal 1951. The services had asked for $20,000,000,000 but the administration reduced their request.

Defense Secretary Louis Johnson, who has been criticized for cutting the proposed budget, has defended the reductions with the remark that "this is Eisenhower's budget."

Much of the criticism was centered around limitations on the air force. The budget calls for only 48 combat air groups but proponents of air power contend the country needs at least 70 groups for minimum defense.

Lightning Fires House Here As Weather Warms

Lightning set fire to a house during a Summer-like thunderstorm in the northeastern section of Atlanta last night as the forecaster reported the unseasonably warm weather is slated to hold over through tomorrow.

DeKalb firemen reported the residence at 2045 Ponce de Leon Ave., was struck, causing a fire which did slight damage. The thunderstorm was accompanied by wind and rain. Hail stones up to an inch in diameter fell in Jackson, it was reported.

Fair and warmer, with the temperature reaching 75 degrees, is predicted for today and tomorrow.

Yesterday's temperature shot up to 76, hot enough to blister faces. The low was 44.

WHERE WOMAN'S BODY WAS FOUND
Det. C. L. Hughes Points to Spot in Chattahoochee

Jilted Mother Leads 2 Children to Death

Woman and One Child Survive Mass Drowning

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C.—(UP)—Spurned by her lover, Mrs. D. P. Debusk took her infant in her arm and two other children by the hand and walked into Salem Creek, she told police yesterday.

Iva Lee Debusk, aged six months, and Charlie Debusk, 2, were drowned. Mrs. Debusk, 41, and her five-year-old daughter, Ruby Lee, survived. Murder charges were prepared against the mother.

"We were goin' a drownin'," said the gaunt, tired wife of a furniture store worker and mother of seven children. "We walked in ever so far. We walked under the water but we still held hands until I thought they were dead."

She said the children didn't struggle. Then, Mrs. Debusk lifted out the limp bodies and placed them on the creek bank, she said.

"Ruby Lee whimpered, and I didn't have the heart to throw her back in," she said in explaining the older child's survival. She abandoned her plan to drown herself in order to save the girl, she added.

Ruby Lee was in serious condition from immersion. Both she and the mother were under hospital treatment.

Mrs. Debusk said she decided to die with her younger children because of an unhappy affair with a married man with whom she had been keeping company seven or eight years.

"He's a home breaker," she said. "He broke up my home and then threw me aside."

She said she dressed the children and took a taxicab to the creek just beyond the city limits.

"We took our coats off and laid them on the bank," officers quoted her. "Then I told the older ones to hold hands and not to let go. I carried the baby and held Charlie's hand, Ruby Lee held his other hand and we just walked in."

The tragedy was reported after the dripping mother, carrying Ruby Lee, went to John and Edith Miller's farm. The couple said they had heard screams from the creek earlier.

"I thought the little girl had just fallen in," Mrs. Miller said. "All the woman said was just, 'Oh, oh, oh.' Then, about 10 minutes later, she said 'there's two more down there on the creek bank dead'."

Detectives Henry Rominger and Jim Lentz found Mrs. Debusk sitting in the Miller home with Ruby Lee in her lap and sobbing: "My baby. My poor babies."

Red Cross Campaign Over $390,000 Goal

Goal Exceeded by $20,233 With More Expected Today

Atlanta's 1950 Red Cross Fund Campaign is over the top!

The 12,000 volunteer workers scored not only their precious "touchdown" but the "extra point" as well. They exceeded their $390,000 goal by $20,233.

"All the credit goes to the people," W. Eugene Harrington, General Chairman of the campaign, said at the final victory dinner in the Ansley Hotel last night.

"The response of the people has been perfectly wonderful. Once more they've proved the Atlanta spirit still lives. Everybody should be proud," he declared.

Praising the campaign workers, many of whom had canvassed residential and business areas in the rain during the 17-day drive, Harrington said, "No campaign has ever had a more enthusiastic or loyal group of workers."

"What a power for the good of our community lies in the hearts and minds and spirits of this group of fine public-spirited citizens," he concluded.

Gen. George C. Marshall, head of the National Red Cross in Washington, wired Harrington: "Have just been advised by telephone the excellent news that you are over the top in one of the outstanding Red Cross campaigns in the country. This maintains eminent record of achievement of leaders and workers of the Atlanta Chapter. My sincere congratulations to all."

The Rev. Matthew Warren, Pastor of All Saints Episcopal Church and guest speaker for the occasion, told the celebrants the Red Cross means to him "the survival of humanity."

A total of $65,722 was reported by five divisions to boost the grand total to $410,233.

Body of Woman Found in River

Believed Corpse of Atlantan Reported Missing March 10

By KEELER McCARTNEY

Fulton County officers today were investigating the death of a neatly dressed woman, believed to be an Atlantan, whose badly decomposed body was found floating in the muddy Chattahoochee River, near Bolton.

Det. Sgt. L. T. Bullard said the body was believed to be that of Mrs. Crandall Howell, 63, who was reported missing March 10, from her home at 1128 Merrell Dr., S. W.

A plain gold wedding ring on the third finger of the left hand bore the initials "C.C.H." Bullard said Mrs. Howell's full name was "Corrie Crandell Howell."

The clothing and size and color of the hair also corresponded to the description of Mrs. Howell given police in a missing person report of March 12, Bullard said. He added that positive identification was impossible in the present state of the body.

Jesse Clines, of Bolton, discovered the body floating in the swollen river as he set out to fish near the railroad crossing at the old Chattahoochee brickyard.

Clines immediately went for help. J. H. Phillips and C. J. Wallace aided in removing the body to the river bank.

An autopsy by Dr. Herman Jones, of the Fulton County Crime Laboratory, disclosed that death was due to drowning.

The body was fully clothed, even to black shoes with medium high heels. She wore a three-fourth length gray coat with pink dress. The coat was held with a metal belt.

On the front of her dress, held by a small safety pin, detectives found a metal crucifix.

A plain gold wedding ring was on the third finger of her left hand.

The woman was neatly dressed and wore false teeth, detectives said. A handful of fishhooks, evidently lost in the river, were caught in her clothing.

Slime from the river encased the body, detectives related. They said she had sharp facial features, with light hair and medium complexion.

Establishing that death was due to drowning alone did not indicate whether she leaped or was thrown into the water, it was pointed out. Dr. Jones said she evidently died several days ago.

Detectives said the woman was approximately five feet three inches tall, weighed about 115 pounds and was thin.

The description, they added, was similar to that of an Atlanta woman reported missing on March 10. However, no definite identification was made.

The body was removed to H. M. Patterson and Son.

Georgia Klan Probed By Congress Group

Un-American Committee Agents Come Here To Study Operations

By M. L. ST. JOHN

Secret agents of the House Un-American Activities Committee already have visited Georgia collecting information on the Ku Klux Klan, it was reported last night. The report came after Rep. John Wood, Democrat, Georgia, Committee Chairman, revealed in Washington that the committee may investigate the Klan.

Sam W. Roper, head of the Georgia Association of Klans, said that his group "welcomes an investigation by the House Un-American Activities Committee" and "will co-operate with the Committee probers 100 percent."

Agents for the Committee have interviewed several Georgians and have obtained much detailed information concerning Klan activities, it was learned.

The Klan is listed by the United States Attorney General's office as a subversive group.

Chairman Wood, who fought the Klan in the Blue Ridge Circuit when he was Solicitor General some years ago, said he does not regard the hooded group as a political power at this time. However, he added that it would be wise to know how it operates.

The Klan's political influence in Georgia was high many years ago. It has been disbanded, reorganized, and split into many tiny factions until today it could muster only a few thousand votes, according to its friends in high political circles.

Talmadge Pledges Aid In Next School Year

By ALBERT RILEY

Gov. Talmadge has pledged that his Administration "will place the Minimum Foundation Program for Education into operation for our State of Georgia during the coming school year, God willing."

This was the Governor's carefully worded reply last night to the Georgia Education Association, which a few hours earlier had urged the Chief Executive and the Legislature to finance the MFP in full "by the beginning of the 1950-51 school term."

Neither the GEA in its convention resolution nor Talmadge in his answer made any specific reference to a special Summer session of the Legislature, which the Governor opposes.

It would require a special session, however, to finance the MFP "by the beginning of the 1950-51 school term."

Talmadge's promise to put the MFP into operation "during the coming school year," indicated he plans to ask the Legislature to finance the program in its January, 1951, session, but not before then.

GEA leaders appeared jubilant over his speech, however, and indicated they placed firm confidence in the Governor's pledge. One leader even said he believed the job of financing the MFP might yet be done in a special Summer legislative session.

It will take more than $83,000,000 to finance the MFP, roughly $24,000,000 more than the approximately $59,000,000 Georgia now is spending on public schools, the University System and teacher retirement.

Addressing the convention, the Governor declared that his administration "has by its acts and deeds repeatedly demonstrated its friendship for and interest in education," and "has done more for the cause of education than any other administration in a comparable period of time."

The Department of Education appropriations have been increased from $37,000,000 in 1947-48 to $50,000,000 during the present fiscal year, for a gain of $13,000,000, he pointed out.

This additional money, he said, has increased the allotment of teachers by 1,016 and made possible a 10 percent salary raise for all teachers.

Additionally, vocational educa-

Truck TNT Blast Kills 2 in Car

Driver Escapes Fiery Vehicle Near Nashville

NASHVILLE, Tenn.—(AP) — The State Highway Patrol reported two persons were killed when a dynamite-laden trailer-truck exploded on U. S. Highway 41A 20 miles northwest of here last night.

The patrol said possibly more dead were in a field beside the highway.

The dead were reported occupants of a car following the truck.

Patrol Radio Dispatcher James A. Spurlock said a report was radioed in that the truck caught fire and the driver escaped.

The blast rocked the countryside and was felt in all sections of Nashville. It was felt 28 miles away at the Nashville Airport, which received a radio account from an American Airlines pilot who saw the explosion from several miles distance.

Ambulances were en route to the scene from Nashville and Clarksville.

A hole 40-feet across and 20 feet deep was blasted out of the concrete highway, the patrol said.

The patrol placed the site of the explosion at two miles southeast of the village of Pleasant View.

The big truck had a full load of 400 cases of dynamite, which let go with blockbuster force.

The driver was identified as E. E. Minis, of Nashville, and the vehicle was reported owned by the Hercules Powder Company. It was en route from Nashville to Clarksville, 45 miles to the north.

Sgt. Johnny Markel, of the Eleventh Airborne Division, Camp Campbell, Ky., an eyewitness to the blast said "the concussion was like a thousand-pound bomb and the flash was a lot brighter than one."

Markel, a wartime Marine sergeant, is from Detroit, Mich. He was driving from Camp Campbell, near Clarksville, to Nashville and was 200 yards away when the truck exploded.

"The driver got out and began flagging cars back of him towards Nashville," Markel said. "I started flagging them on the Clarksville side.

"The truck burned fiercely for 20 minutes before the explosion. By that time there were at least 50 cars backed up on the Clarksville side and about the same number on the side toward Nashville.

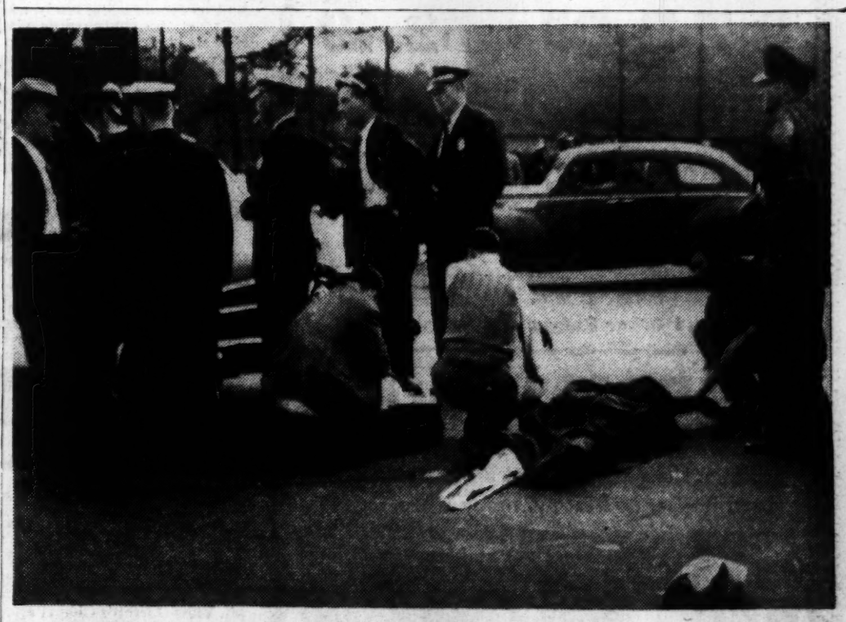

"Because it had burned for 20 minutes without blowing up some of the people thought there wouldn't be an explosion. So they ignored our warnings and got closer. They were the ones who got hurt. I don't believe any one on our side was killed. Those killed were on the other side."

COCA II CONTEST WINNERS PICKED

The hunt for the elephant hunters is over!

Six boys and girls who are going to fly with Asa G. Candler, Jr., to market to pick out a Coca II for the Grant Park zoo, have been selected.

Their names will be announced in Monday's Constitution and their destination and date of departure as soon thereafter as possible. Elephant scouts for Candler and Parks Director George Simons are canvassing this country and Canada to find the best elephant supply.

AWAITS AMBULANCE—Mary Strozier, Negro, of 119 Alexis St., S. W., gets medical attention while waiting for an ambulance after being struck by a Fulton County police car on Peachtree near Peachtree Battle Avenue. Her condition was pronounced critical at Grady Hospital. Investigating officers said the woman was struck by the police car's right fender as she stepped from behind another car into the path of the patrol car.

The Georgia FARMER

New Farm, Industry Plan Georgia's Answer to Boll Weevil Invasion

By STILES A. MARTIN
Constitution State News Editor

A number of years ago the residents of Enterprise, Ala., erected a monument to the boll weevil, because that insect had caused a diversified farm program in that section.

Georgia has built a number of monuments to the boll weevil, but they are not of marble or granite, but they are in the form of an improved fram program and in the many new industrial plants scattered over the State.

This is how the Georgia "monuments" have been built:

Stiles Martin

The history of Georgia agriculture is divided into three periods. The first dated from the founding of the State in 1733 by Gen. Oglethorpe until the invention of the cotton gin in Savannah in 1793 by Eli Whitney, which was the beginning of establishing the South as the world cotton empire.

The second era dates from then until about 1917-18, when the State was invaded by the boll weevil. The cotton empire held sway during that time.

The third period began with the "boll weevil" era and continues until now. It was during this last period that Georgia has made its greatest progress in agriculture and industry. These "monuments" have been built in the last 30 years.

Farming has always been and still is the leading occupation of the majority of the people in the State, there being more people living on the farms than in the cities.

The Indians were the first farmers in the Georgia territory and Oglethorpe found them cultivating small patches and gardens when he settled at Savannah in 1733. Farming was the chief occupation of Oglethorpe's band. Each settler was required to have a garden, and, in addition, he engaged in silk-worm culture. When that trade failed, he turned to growing rice, indigo and tobacco.

Gradually more cotton was grown, but there was difficulty in separating the seeds from the lint, and Whitney solved this problem by perfecting a machine which performed that service. As a result, the South turned to cotton-growing because England would buy all available, plus the fact textile mills were springing up in the United States.

Cotton continued "King" of crops in the South until the coming of the boll weevil; then the stalks were luxuriant of growth, but bare of bolls. The farmer realized that he must turn to other and new crops.

The "Cow, Hog and Hen" program was "born" in Turner County, whereby more cows—dairy and beef—more hogs were fattened and sold to packing plants; more chickens and eggs were produced. The plan grew throughout the State and today, as far as the cows and the hog are concerned, nearly 100 livestock sales are held weekly at various Georgia points, the income therefrom being more than $100,000,000 annually.

Four major packing firms in the United States—Armour, Cudahy, Swift and Wilson—have established plants in Georgia for processing meats and in 1948 livestock and livestock products sold by Georgia farmers totaled $175,000,000. That figure included hogs, cattle, chickens, including broilers, turkeys, eggs and dairy products sold and not for home consumption.

Other new crops grown include tobacco and peanuts, each with a value annually of more than $50,000,000; expansion of the pimiento pepper industry; the plant industry in South Georgia. At the same time, farmers turned to truck crop growing, and as we write the early cabbage crop is moving from South Georgia.

Georgia's commercial truck crop in 1949 was sold for $11,141,000, grown on 102,000 acres. Whereas many Georgia farmers formerly only grew cotton, now they grow in addition tobacco, peanuts, pecans, sugarcane, pimiento peppers, melons and various other truck crops.

New $6,000 Contest Set for '50

200 Scholarships Offered Georgians

Constitution State News Service

TIFTON—Opening of the 1950 production-marketing contest of the National Junior Vegetable Growers Association was announced here by R. J. Richardson, Assistant State 4-H Club leader, who is State Chairman for the NJVGA.

The contest offers teen-age tillers of the soil more than 200 agricultural scholarships and awards for doing a superior job of growing and marketing vegetables.

In announcing the Association's tenth annual contest, Richardson pointed out that all Cracker State boys and girls from 12 through 21 are eligible to compete for the $6,000 in awards A&P Food Stores provides for this project each year. Georgia youths won four State awards in the 1949 contest.

Richardson explained that the contest is essentially an educational program designed to further the use of more modern, efficient and profitable methods of growing and selling vegetables.

"This project plays a vital part in spreading knowledge of scientific agricultural developments," he said, "and, with a record 150,000,000 population eating about 15 percent more than in prewar years, its importance cannot be over-emphasized."

Farmers Urged To Plant More Truck Crops

Constitution State News Service

DONALSONVILLE — County Agent, H. E. Ragan is urging farmers in this section to plant truck crops this season in order to furnish an ample supply of vegetables to the new State Farmers Market nearing completion, and to the local canning plant.

Ragan says "we believe the canning plant will help make the truck program much sounder. It will offer an outlet for fresh produce, for which there is no market or when the market is low.

"The market will be essential to insure the success of the canning plant, and the canning plant is needed to make a good market," he said.

The canning plant will specialize in green bush beans, yellow crowder peas and tomatoes. It will use okra and will can sweet potatoes.

PRUNING TIME—Tree climbing is a daily occupation during the Winter months in the North Georgia apple country. The apple trees, now a mass of bare, gaunt limbs, will soon be breaking into colorful display of blossoms. Farmers such as Howard Parks, of Fannin County, above, prune the trees while they are dormant so that when the apples begin to form there will be no crowding and allowing plenty of room for new growth.

Raymond M. Kimsey said "it wasn't easy but where there's a will, someone will help you find the way."

And, to top other hardships, Kimsey harvested his first crop of Kentucky 31 fescue seed with his pocketknife.

Kimsey's farm was flooded out when the Chatuge Reservoir was built during the last war to supply additional power. He and his family had to find a new home.

The Georgia Extension Service and the Tennessee Valley Authority came to his aid when they set him up as a test-demonstration farmer. With their help in planning, Kimsey learned that the key to agricultural success is soil fertility.

He acquired a "worn-out" farm and began in a small way to change its productivity, proving for himself and his neighbors that ample quantities of minerals will make soil produce higher, more profitable crop yields.

Towns County Agent W. E. Neville gave Kimsey one-half pound of Kentucky 31 fescue in 1946 which was obtained from the Georgia Mountain Experiment Station at Blairsville. The plucky grower planted one-tenth of an acre of abandoned land which had been idle for years. He spread a load of barnyard fertilizer, 40 pounds of triple superphosphate and 20 pounds of ammonium nitrate on the small plot. The land was harrowed thoroughly.

Late in 1946 Kimsey pulled the plow while his wife guided it to lay off 20-inch rows and plant the seeds. In July, 1947, he harvested his first crop of fescue with a pocketknife. The grass was dried on the back porch, and produced 17 pounds of clean seed.

During the Summer he prepared to plant a full acre of this new Winter-growing grass. After harrowing the area, he applied two loads of fertilizer and 400 pounds of triple superphosphate. Early in the Spring of 1949 he top-dressed this acre with 100 pounds of ammonium nitrate. In July he cut with an old-fashioned cradle the seed crop off this acre and when it was threshed by hand, he weighed up 250 pounds of seed.

In 1949 the original one acre was again harvested with the cradle and 389 pounds of seed saved. Kimsey sold 344 pounds of this seed at 50 cents a pound and saved the other 45 pounds to sow on some road banks and rough land in front of his home.

ATHENS—Georgia's 4-H Club boys and girls today are getting under way with a bread-making project which will involve approximately 32,000 members, some of them boys.

Mrs. Martha Harrison, assistant State 4-H Club leader, said the bread project is attracting so much interest the boys are asking to participate.

Awards will be offered by the Calumet Division, General Foods Corporation, sponsor of the activity, to boys and girls who do outstanding work in the project. All club members under 14 years of age will compete in a junior group and those over 14 in a senior group.

The State winner in the senior group will receive a free trip to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago in December. Second and third place winners are to be given $100 college scholarships. Six District winners in the senior group are to receive free trips to the State 4-H Club Congress in Atlanta in October. District winners in the junior group will get cash awards.

County winners in the senior group will receive a free set of baking utensils and County winners in the junior group are to be given free subscriptions to the National 4-H Club News, monthly magazine.

All club members who enter the project will be given a free cookbook.

Mrs. Harrison points out that this is the first time General Foods has sponsored the project in Georgia and that only one other Southern State, Tennessee, was selected for the project in 1950.

3 Pounds of Fescue Seed Enough for Churchyard

SATURDAY, MARCH 25, 1950

Suggestion of the day: These long-playing records are made to order for the farm home. One of the niceties often lacking on the farm is that satisfying something called music. An hour of music at the close of the day adds tremendously to sweet living.

1949'S FESCUE GIVE-AWAY

We continue to receive many requests for Ky. 31 fescue seed to be used in the covering of churchyards. This comes about because the Ky. 31 Fescue Association, with headquarters at Cumming, gave away last year more than 1,000 pounds of fescue seed for this purpose. And they gave it free.

Those churches that did not get in on the free distribution of this seed might accomplish the job of covering the churchyard and cemeteries by getting in touch with the local soil conservation service technician and asking him to work up the project. Three pounds of fescue seed will cover the churchyard and this does not cost much and the work of preparing the seed bed and of nourishing the newly planted grass with proper fertilization can be done by the local committee. Maybe the local fertilizer dealer will help out.

Maybe the church would like to do the complete job itself and not be beholden to anybody.

Ky. 31 fescue has become so well known and is doing such a good job in holding soil and moisture and in providing Winter grazing that there is a tremendous demand for the seed. Farmers everywhere are using it as their main reliance for Winter grazing, particularly early Winter grazing. When the Falls are dry (as they usually are) there is no other grass so ready for grazing when the frosts knock out the Summer grasses as this same fescue grass. Of course, if one gets ample moisture during September and October, he will have the use of the annual clovers, small grains, vetches, peas, rye grasses, etc. My experience is that these annuals provide early grazing requirements about one year in four. But you can count on fescue being ready when Winter strikes, come what may.

To get the churchyards planted in a mantle of green is very desirable. Fescue grass will do the job. More than 1,000 Georgia churches have already made use of this grass for this purpose.

The Ky. 31 Fescue Association deserves the thanks of the State for its generous contribution toward this end. It has set the example that all may follow for themselves.

All is well on the Yellow River, down where nothin's aggravatin' any more. Join us over the air at 6:00 a. m. and 12:45 p. m.

As ever,

Channing Cope

Tip to Growers

The extent to which Georgia farmers are able to maintain or increase their income in the years ahead will depend largely upon the extent to which they are able to expand the economic production of livestock and poultry products, experts believe.

Dr. Eaton To Conduct Revival at West End

Preparations for Meeting Made by Visitations, Prayer

Dr. Hugh Van Eaton, Pastor of Walnut Street Baptist Church, Owensboro, Ky., will direct a series of revival services at the West End Baptist Church, commencing tomorrow and continuing each day through Sunday, April 9.

Services will be held at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. tomorrow and at 7:30 p. m. nightly throughout the week.

Preparations for the revival have been made through cottage prayer meetings and visitation, with more than 50 people taking part in the visitations each night. A special prayer meeting at 7:30 p. m. today will climax the pre-revival activity.

Atlanta-Sewanee Swap

A lend-lease, good neighbor policy between Atlanta and Sewanee will be in effect tomorrow, when Dr. Richard Hooker Wilmer, Chaplain of the University of the South, with the Students' Choir of All Saints Chapel, will exchange places with the Very Rev. John B. Walthour, Dean of the Atlanta St. Philip's Cathedral Choir. The Sewanee group will be present at both the 9:30 and 11 a. m. services at St. Philip's. Dr. Wilmer's mother was the former Margaret VanDyke Grant, and his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Grant, all of Atlanta.

Dr. Wilmer

Bible Meeting To Close

One of the most impressive Tabernacle Bible Conferences of recent years, according to Dr. Paul S. James, Tabernacle pastor, will close with a Youth Rally at 7:30 p. m. today, under the direction of the Atlanta Baptist Student Union.

A song session will be conducted by Carlton Booth, of Providence, R. I., and an inspirational talk will be made by Vance Havner, of Greensboro, N. C., and Charles Wellborn, 23-year-old Texas youth leader.

This rally will be the third in a series which will precede a Youth Revival at the Tabernacle May 15-20. Havner will address a rally of Sunday School classes at the Tabernacle at 10 a. m. tomorrow

Passion Services

Passion Week services will be conducted at All Saints Episcopal Church beginning Monday and continuing each day throughout the week, featuring talks by Dr. D. A. McGregor. Services will be held at 12:05 p. m. Lunch will be provided in the Parish House for working people.

These services will be sponsored jointly by All Saints and St. Luke's Episcopal Churches.

Lenten Speaker

Bishop Donald B. Aldrich, of the Princeton University Chapel, Princeton, N. J., will be the fifth speaker in a series of special Lenten service at St. Luke's Episcopal Church at 8 p. m. Tuesday. Bishop Aldrich has served as Dean of St. Paul's Cathedral, Boston, Mass., Rector of the Church of the Ascension, New York, and as chaplain in the Navy and Co-adjustor Bishop of Michigan.

Decatur Study Course

Decatur First Baptist Church will conduct a special Sunday School study course beginning at 7 p. m. Monday and continuing at that time each day throughout Friday. State Sunday school workers will particapte in the program, which will be under the direction of Dr. T. W. Tippett, State Secretary. Dr. Harry Walker will teach "Studies In Acts."

Rev. Gilmore To Speak

The Rev. Arthur J. Gilmore, Executive Secretary of the North Georgia Conference, will address the Church Night Dinner of the Peachtree Road Methodist Church at 6:30 p. m. Wednesday.

Training School

Druid Hills Methodist Church will conduct a Training School for Christian Workers beginning at 3 p. m. today. Classes will be conducted at 7:30 p. m. each day throughout Friday.

Forsyth's Cantata

Forsyth's cantata, "The Last Supper" will be sung by the choirs of the Peachtree Christian Church during its impressive Evening Bells service at 5 p. m. tomorrow. A group of hymns will be presented by the choir at the same time.

Friends, Quakers Meet

Miss Patricia Dunham, who has been active in establishing overseas work camps and in assisting in orientation of displaced persons upon their arrival in New York City, will address the Society of Friends, Quakers, at 1:45 p. m. tomorrow at the YMCA.

Escapees Linked To Holdup Here

Detectives today continued their search for two Fulton County escapees following a Marietta Street loan office robbery in which four employees and a customer were locked in a storeroom and $120 was stolen.

Dets. J. L. Moseley and Y. H. Allen said the bandits were identified as L. J. Masters and Eston Anderson, two of five prisoners who escaped from Fulton Tower two weeks ago. Employees of the Community Loan & Investment, Inc., office at 74½ Marietta St., N. W., recognized pictures of the escaped pair.

The gunmen looted the cash drawer and took wallets from three employees and a customer. Mrs. Peggy Van Sant, another employee, was locked with the others in a rear room. They were released 45 minutes later by Virgil Taylor, manager of the office.

tion funds have been increased, teacher retirement benefits raised and school bus drivers' pay hiked, Talmadge said.

The Governor declared that a $12,000,000 building program launched under his administration "will be the biggest thing that has ever happened to our University System."

The public schools of Georgia "are in better financial condition today than they have ever been in the history of the State," he declared, but added that "this does not mean, of course, that they are as yet adequately financed."

Talmadge was applauded four times during and after his speech, and Dr. O. C. Aderhold, retiring GEA President, termed the Governor's promise as "good news."

Kankakee (Buck) Anderson, new GEA President, termed it "wonderful," and said "it's the best news the school children have had since their last vacation." He added that "my interpretation is that we will have the beginning of the MFP in September."

State School Supt. M. D. Collins called the speech "tops" and said the Governor "went all out for financing the MFP." GEA Executive Secretary Harold Saxon called it "a fine speech," and said "I liked it and I appreciate it."

The Rev. J. Gorham Garrison, retiring GEA Vice President, said that as a result of Talmadge's pledge he had high hopes that the MFP would be financed by September or soon thereafter.

Need Alone Ought To Govern

Need and need alone ought to govern the closing or continued operation of Lawson VA Hospital at Chamblee.

Likewise, that should be the basis for determining whether the VA should transfer operations from Lawson to Oliver General Hospital at Augusta, whether it should activate Oliver and keep Lawson in operation or whether it should keep either one going and build, or not build, the projected new hospital in Atlanta.

The civic groups, the American Legion and others who are interested ought to hold their fire until the VA has a chance to determine which of the several alternatives will best serve the veterans of the area within the framework of economical operation.

When the facts are in there will be time enough for advice and assistance by the various groups. But pressure, exerted solely for the purpose of retaining local facilities regardless of their soundness, here or elsewhere, will only distort the problem and hinder a wise decision.

The "We're for economy but—" school too often places the "but" in connection with the economy that affects its immediate area or interests.

There are powerful reasons why Oliver General should, if consistent with over-all needs and economy, be continued in operation. The most compelling to the Armed Forces and to the people of Georgia is that Oliver General operates in conjunction with the Georgia Medical School. If it is closed the School will have to cut down its student body by 50 percent. That would be tragic for Georgia, which needs doctors, and for the Armed Forces, which also need more doctors.

That, however, is but one phase of the problem and it is one the VA is certain to take into consideration.

We do not intend to impute infallible wisdom to the VA. It has made many, many mistakes. But premature screaming that the veteran is being robbed will only confuse the situation. Calm advice and assistance, based on facts and need, doubtless will help. Selfish pressure will be a disservice to the veterans and the country.

It Could Be a Lot Worse

We suppose most taxpayers, whose memory of March 15 still is sharp, are following avidly the day-to-day reports on what the Government may spend in the next fiscal year beginning July 1.

It is the first time the taxpayer has had much chance to know what goes on. Formerly, appropriations were handled in separate measures, acted on at varying times. Nobody ever knew until the end of the session, and sometimes much later, just how much money had been appropriated. And by the time the information was available most people had lost interest.

Under the new system all appropriations, except items such as interest on the debt, foreign aid and so on, are handled in a single bill.

As approved by the House Appropriations Committee, the present bill calls for about $1,500,000,000 less than the President asked. It is too early yet to say spending will be reduced by that much, for the bill now must be debated and come up for a vote on the floor of the House as well as the Senate.

Even if the reduced appropriation is approved finally, next year's deficit will be more than $4,000,000,000. The only encouraging aspect is that it might be a lot worse.

Should We Rearm Germany?

Georgia's Sen. George finds himself in the distinguished company of Winston Churchill in calling for rearmament of Western Germany. Never an appeaser, Mr. Churchill sees a greater menace in Communist aggression than in revival of a strong Germany.

Sen. George says military aid to Western Europe is a waste of money unless it is bolstered by rearming Germany. He makes it abundantly clear he still is staunchly behind Marshall Plan economic aid.

Actually, the present North Atlantic Pact is backed only by a very loose military confederation. There is no grand strategic plan. The military organization is inadequate.

Rearming Western Germany is a touchy subject in Europe, particularly in France. Yet, Russian-dominated Eastern Germany now has a sizable standing army, closely supervised by Soviet troops. Western Germans understandably do not like the idea of being swallowed up by the Russians without even a chance to defend themselves. Germany obviously will be the first line of defense if the Russians move on the rest of Europe. Our own troops there are inadequate to offer more than token resistance.

The problem is whether the risk of allowing Germany to rearm is offset by the help her armed force would be in case of Russian aggression. Whether we like it or not, Germany is to a large extent the keystone of Western Europe's military power, just as it figures strongly in the Continent's economic recovery.

If Germany is to be rearmed, safeguards would be necessary. They could be provided by a long-range occupation policy to make sure the power we build up would not be used against our allies or ourselves.

Commanding the weight and respect he does, Sen. George's stand ought to help in establishing a more realistic approach to the problem of keeping a firm line in Europe against Russia. We could do with more sound thinking and less emotionalism on the subject.

More Trouble To Come in Berlin

BERLIN—This sad, beleaguered city is the best place in Europe, at the moment, to test the sincerity of the Kremlin's hints of settlement of the world conflict, that have so excited wishful thinkers everywhere. Berlin is the test of the new peace offensive.

The test reveals that while the Kremlin talks of peace, the Soviet high command in Germany is actually preparing another major cold war offensive that will be more dangerous, and will involve more direct military provocation, than any in the past.

A previous report has already described the projected May invasion of Berlin by the East Zone's Communist youth, and the series of other planned riots that are to follow this first attack. The purpose is both to intimidate the West Berliners, and to demonstrate "popular" demand for the "liberation" of Berlin from the Americans, British and French.

The Soviet stage managers will then hold an East Zone election on Oct. 15. A militantly Communist East German government will be automatically returned to office. The worst kind of trouble can be foreseen immediately thereafter, unless the strongest counter-measures have been taken in the meanwhile by the Western Powers.

What will occur is very simple. The East German puppet government will announce that the presence of the Western powers in "their capital" of Berlin has grown intolerable to the people. They will then enforce a new blockade, using units of the new German "peoples' army" instead of Russian troops on the roads and railways. The Soviets meanwhile, will disclaim responsibility for this "spontaneous manifestation" of German popular feeling.

There are clear, practical reasons for forecasting this elaborate but immensely menacing comedy. Soviet intentions toward Berlin have already been openly proclaimed by the plans for the May rally of the Freie Deutsche Jugend and other projected attacks of the same nature. Another little blockade of Berlin, similar to that which announced the previous total blockade, is already being enforced on the highways and canals. And in great haste and at immense expense, the Soviet high command has just completed a railway by-pass around Berlin's Western sectors.

The rail by-pass can have no purpose whatever, except to strike from the hands of the Western allies their last card in any struggle for Berlin. This last card, which was never played in the former blockade, consisted of the power to disrupt all Soviet Zone communications, by cutting the East German rail net at its hub in the Berlin West sectors. This is now no longer possible.

Meanwhile, the Soviets retain their last card, which they also failed to play in the former blockade. All-weather operation of the airlift depended, and will depend again, on the so-called ground control approach system. This system alone permits landings in poor visibility, such as will prevail almost continuously after Oct. 15. But the ground control approach system is hopelessly and easily vulnerable to radar-jamming.

The evidence clearly suggests that the Soviets are preparing another blockade of Berlin. Since they cannot stand another defeat by airlift, it is logical to expect them, this time, to disrupt the airlift by radar-jamming of the ground control approach system. Such is the measure of their new boldness, undoubtedly based on consciousness of their own growing superiority in naked military power.

As to the future, mere Western firmness of purpose will cease to be effective, as Soviet rearmament progresses and the Kremlin's boldness correspondingly increases further. But this is a problem simple to solve—we need only stop listening to the phony claims of dubious officials, and embark on a serious defense program. That will attack the trouble at its root.

A Tough Small Army

TEL AVIV, Israel—How good is the Israeli army?

I'd say it already is—or is well on the way to becoming—the best, very small army in the Middle East.

There is censorship about the military. That is not surprising. The Arabs are rearming. They have the man power and they possess more arms.

But in the recent war the Israeli army won. At the beginning of the war they had three field guns—just three. They used to fire them in an afternoon and that night pull them to another region to fire the next morning. They obtained some arms during the war. But they never had enough.

They won it on intelligence, leadership and a hard core of fanatic courage.

The army that won was a partisan army, built under the eyes of the British who held the mandate.

Modern Now, how good is the modern army? I have just concluded a visit to a training camp for recruits. I talked there with an impressive Lt. Col. Mordecai Aksamite, Camp Commander.

"All you see here you can write and all I tell you may be printed," he said. "This is a camp for recruits. It is no secret we are training men."

What I saw astonished me. Here, on a large parade ground, were men being trained in the rudiments of drill. Drill instructors, tough and as harsh of voice as those of the United States Marines at Cherry Point or Parris Island, were putting them through the drill. I have never seen men drilled harder or more thoroughly in my life. They march as did the British, with the right arm swung high and freely. The DIs were making them stamp and pound on the turns. It was sharp and very, very businesslike. It would have delighted the heart of any military man.

Spirit The Israeli soldiers wear the British-type uniform, with certain modifications. The men are smartly dressed and well equipped. The uniforms are made in Israel The boots come from Israel and Australia. The caps, shirts and khaki pants are from America.

The training camp routine is hard, the discipline severe. Yet so intense is the Israeli spirit that few men fall victim to it.

The men work hard. Their day is nine hours. Two or three nights each week there are night drills. They are fed well and housed well, although American soldiers would not think well of the Israeli bed. It is a good mattress laid on a plank base. There are plenty of blankets and sheets.

The men in training are given physical training in calesthenics and over very tough obstacle courses. Included in these latter are those over which live ammunition is fired, as is customary in all army training today.

A small but complete army, including aviation troops, is being trained.

Recruits Recruits may be either volunteers or selective service. At 18 each Israeli youth must serve two years. Many volunteer for the regular army. They may volunteer for three, four or five years.

The training period, of a varying number of weeks, is done in two divisions. The native-born Israeli train in one group. Because so many thousands have come to Israel from so many nations, and speak so many tongues and are, often, in inferior physical condition, they are trained separately. For these latter ones there is, in addition to the hours of drill and instruction, extra hours of schooling in Hebrew, the national language.

By the time they learn their rifle they must also learn enough Hebrew to get along. They do it. They also fill out enormously. Some of the Yemenites, whose generations of malnutrition and bad health have produced a slender, rather frail youth with almost no shoulders, gain two and three inches in the chest and put on 20 and even 30 pounds of weight. They are enormously proud of their new muscle and dimensions. Almost all the immigrant recruits gain from 10 to 15 pounds.

Good Once the period of training is done all are mixed together and sent to permanent units. There isn't any doubt about this much—once an Israeli soldier has come through the training course he is a good soldier, as well trained as any in any other country.

Most of those with any rank are combat veterans. There are few Jewish young men who did not experience combat in the recent war against the Arab states. There is in this army a fine core of experience. Its morale is high.

It is a literate army. It reads books, goes to concerts and has, too, a sense of humor. It knows why it is being trained, why Israel must have an army, and it expresses itself in a banner hung over one of the barracks doors:

"We Train for Peace, But We Prepare for War."

The men who are its officers include many who served for some years with the British army and with the Jewish Brigade in that army. That war was bitterly and fanatically fought. The Jewish army won because it had better leadership, was more intelligent and wanted to fight for the land and the people.

It will fight again if it has to do so. If it does it will fight well.

How good is it?

I don't know. But I believe it to be very, very good indeed.

JOHN WHEELER

The Parting of the Ways

This is a true tale of a famous cartoonist we will call Spud Bishop, which is not his real moniker, but close, and the managing editor of a big metropolitan newspaper who will be labelled Bert Scoop for want of a better name.

It all started in a small way one Saturday years ago when these two friends came back to my house in Yonkers from the Empire City race track to have a cocktail. As frequently happens, one drink led to another which at first diffused an atmosphere of warmth and friendliness. The Saratoga meeting started the next Monday, and Mr. Bishop remarked he expected to attend, whereupon the editor in a gesture of comradeship demanded pen and paper to write a note to the secretary requesting Spud be given a press badge. Mr. Scoop went overboard something as follows:

"This letter will introduce Spud Bishop, a great friend of mine and a great artist. You will be doing the New York Star and me a real favor if you will see to it he has a press badge and other courtesies."

Date Mr. Bishop pocketed the note as he swallowed another cocktail. It finally got to be seven-thirty when Mr. Scoop remembered he had a date with his wife in New York at that hour, and she was a lady who could put the chill on the Statue of Liberty if late. Both my friends departed in the artist's Rolls Royce, apparently on good terms, so it was not until Monday I heard the sequel. It seems when they arrived at Bishop's apartment, the corner of Eighty-sixth Street and Riverside Drive, he asked the editor in to refuel.

"No," replied Mr. Scoop. "I'm late already to meet my wife at the Ritz, so let me take your car to get down there as quick as I can."

"Come in and I'll call you a taxi and charge it to my account while we have a powder. I have to send my chauffeur for my mother right away," answered the cartoonist.

"No, thanks. I can take care of my own taxi," Scoop replied indignantly.

Unfortunately, there was no taxi in sight, and the evening was very warm, as he plodded through Eighty-sixth Street, whistling unsuccessfully for a cab, while he worked himself into a lather. He passed a Western Union office which gave him an idea. He went in and sent the following message to the racing secretary:

"If Spud Bishop presents a letter from me asking for a press badge, pay no attention to it. He is well able to pay for his own tickets."

Feud In due course, Mr. Scoop met his wife, and Mr. Bishop drove to Saratoga. From Saturday until Monday, there was a chronic chilliness in the editor's family but no divorce. When the artist presented the letter, the racing secretary trumped it with the telegram which started a big rhubarb that was to last four years. Here was Bishop's reply in the form of a wire:

"You ought to challenge Harry K. Thaw for the egomania championship of the world, but out of sportsmanship give him a handicap." The Thaw referred to was chief figure in a celebrated murder case. He was sent to an asylum on the grounds of insanity.

Promptly, the editor fired back this shot:

"I admit you are an authority on egomania, but what the hell do you know about sportsmanship?"

Thoroughly aroused, the artist bought himself a couple of race horses and got a trainer and an owner's badge as a result. This venture, before he got through, probably cost him $200,000 and me a lot of embarrassment, because neither man spoke to the other. Finally one day after four years, I was fed up and got them together at the bar after the last race. It was during prohibition so as a good-will gesture Bishop produced a flask and offered a drink. Mars Cassidy, the starter, came along.

"Give Mars a drink, too," said the editor, since it was a love feast.

"Sorry. Haven't any more," replied the artist. Scoop shared his.

On the way home, we got a flat tire and, while the driver was changing it, Spud pulled out his flask and said:

"Have a drink?"

"Thought you had gone dry," came back Scoop.

"Why should I give the starter a drink these days?" demanded the artist realistically. "He's a half a mile away across the track. How does he know what horse I'm betting on?"

These men are now good friends again, and I don't want to do anything to strain the relationship. Hence the phony names.

One Thing at a Time

JACK TARVER

Somewhere Under the Rainbow...

I have been reading with incomprehension—if not revulsion—of the latest trend in feminine coiffures, namely, the business of tinting the hair pastel shades—pink, green, orchid, etc.—to harmonize with one's costume.

Nothing is so completely baffling to the mere male mind as the whims of women's fashions. There are times, I mean, when you can't put your finger on them and others when you don't even want to.

Take this business of multihued hair, for instance. Who'd have thought anybody would have ever gone for it . . . except, of course, the Easter-egg dye trust.

This latest fad opens up vast new horizons in the art of camouflage warfare. And goodness knows it was bad enough when their only weapons were henna and peroxide.

Of course, there is one thing about it. It will give the song writers a new lease on life. There'll undoubtedly be a lot of new tunes such as "When Your Hair Has Turned to Chartreuse," "Silver Threads Among the Ecru" and not to mention "Jeannie With the Light Mauve Hair."

I don't know. Maybe I'm just old-fashioned. But I still think it's more important what a girl's head has on the inside than what color it is on the outside.

THE PULSE OF THE PUBLIC

The Constitution welcomes letters on either side of any subject. They should not exceed 200 words and must be signed although names will be withheld on request. We regret none can be returned. Address all letters to Editor Constitution, Atlanta, Ga.

For Crippled Children

Editor Constitution: I am a volunteer worker in the annual Easter Seal Campaign which is being held from March 9 through Easter Sunday, April 9.

There are in Georgia some 30,000 handicapped children. To help them overcome their handicaps and become self-sustaining citizens in their various communities, we need continuing research, increasing professional personnel in medical, therapeutic and educational fields, and an enlightened public which will understand that the crippled can do constructive work in business, professions and industry and must be prepared to hold suitable jobs.

We have made tremendous strides in the past 25 years or so and I think no one will challenge the statement that the Crippled Children's League of Georgia and the National Society for Crippled Children and adults with which it is affiliated have been leaders in this progress. But to keep on making progress we need more funds, more personnel, and more sympathetic public support.

That is what the Easter Seal Drive seeks. I hope the people of Fulton County and of Georgia will help us realize our goal.

Atlanta. RUSSELL BOBBITT.

Effect of Early Primary

Editor Constitution: We noted several editorials in different publications claiming that an early primary would protect and keep in office lame ducks in Georgia. Our impression was that the term of Sen. George, all of our 10 Representatives at Washington and all of our Statehouse officials expired in January, 1951. For this reason we could not understand how the date of the primary could either increase or decrease their tenure of office. In other words, the primary would only name the nominee and in November we would either indorse or reject this nominee, the winner of this general election taking office at the expiration of the term of office of the present incumbent.

Please clarify this matter. There has been much discussion in this section of this angle.

Decatur. W. J. WALKER.

(Editor's Note: The primary is the real election. The general election is merely a legal formality. An early primary will not affect the tenure of any officeholder, but it will give those defeated a longer "lame-duck" tenure.)

Unit System

Editor Constitution: The surest and best way to put a "quietus" on the unfair unit system is for the people to organize, nominate and elect a full State and congressional ticket at the general November election. They could place upon an independent State and congressional ticket such Democratic candidates those whose defeat would not advance the course of good government. If a determined majority of the people would defy nominations made by the unit system it would soon lose favor even of the politicians. Let Gov. Talmadge have the unit nomination then give him a real battle in November.

Brookhaven. CHAS. H. EMMONS.

Stokes and Talmadge

Editor Constitution: I want to enter my protest against some of the misstatements of Thomas L. Stokes in your issue of the Constitution of March 20. He starts off in his tirade by calling the late Eugene Talmadge a red-gallused demagogue. My reply is that this statement comes from a befuddled mind and a malignant heart. His achievements as Commissioner of Agriculture and three times Governor of Georgia need no defense.

He missed the mark again when he accused Gene of saying he didn't expect or want the votes in a county that had a streetcar. I heard him say at Newnan: "I never carried a county that had a streetcar." This speech was made in his race for re-election for a second term. He never said in this speech that he didn't want the voters in these counties, and I challenge Mr. Stokes to show me where he said it any other place.

I want to assure Mr. Stokes that we rural and backwoods folks as he calls us are willing for him to write about Georgia, but please leave off the hate and malice.

Tifton. T. J. ENTREKIN.

Honk for Dogs

Editor Constitution: The writer travels a lot and is becoming more certain that something should be done about the ruthless and careless slaughter of our canine population.

With careful observation it seems to appear that if a motorist takes the trouble to blow his horn the animal will attempt to get out of the way. The writer possibly feels the same as many others and has driven well over 500,000 miles in the last 20 years but has only killed one dog in a freak accident where neither of us could have avoided it.

This letter is a suggestion that another line be added to appear before the public through some public method and we might make it "Honk for a Dog." AAA might feel a bit interested in this slogan.

Driving from Charlotte to Atlanta one fine day, there were eight fresh accidents and all pretty nice specimens, too. Today, from Atlanta to Albany, there were four and driving was not too heavy on the route taken. Most of these might be done at night by heavy and fast trucks, but there might be less if we all just try.

Atlanta. G. E. RABENS.

Help for Billy

Editor Constitution: I am a 13-year-old boy and I am writing to you because of my dog.

The other day there was a gang of boys chasing a little pigeon through our garden with slingshots and air rifles. The pigeon lit on our house. They got my dog upset and he bit one of the boys. The boy had to go to the doctor. We had our dog inoculated last Summer. He shouldn't be rabid.

Would you give me some advice on what to do about it or help me try to find a home for him if we have to get rid of him.

He is a white dog about 1½ feet high. His name is "Skipper."

He is an obedient dog. He is not a year old yet. We think he would make a good hunting dog if trained right. BILLY LATIMER.

Shannon.

'Economy'

Editor Constitution: Rep. Davis makes me laugh, as the patient who laughed at the dentist for pulling the wrong tooth. His "treatise" on Federal spending in McGill's column was noble and informative, but why doesn't he practice what he preaches and withdraw his Federal request for $3,000,000 for the Stone Mountain Memorial Park?

I asked Mr. Scott Candler about this loan and he laughed and said, "Oh, we've got that." And the loan had not yet been approved. I guess he knows that it will be thought and another $3,000,000 of tax money will go the way other Stone Mountain money has gone.

Why can't taxpayers vote for or against such requests for Federal loans? READER.

Decatur.

SWELL SEAL SALES

'Pennies From Elkdom' Tickle Aidmore Patients

Pennies from Elkdom . . . a whole quart of 'em . . . showered plucky little Aidmore patients here.

They tickled the youngsters, and they swelled Aidmore's Easter Seal Sale funds.

Charles W. McNelley, Atlanta businessman, appeared at Seal headquarters for the fifth consecutive year bearing a quart jar overflowing with copper coins.

The annual "penny shower" began in 1945, when McNelley and a group of brother Elks from the Buckhead lodge paid a visit to Aidmore. Returning home, "Mac" kept seeing the faces of courageous boys and girls he had noticed undergoing convalescent treatment for handicaps.

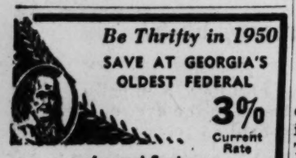

He put the quart jar in a prominent spot in his Powers Ferry Road home and with the aid of friends filled it during the year, presenting it at Easter Seal time. It's a tradition now.

J. Clayton Burke, Director of the Crippled Children League of Georgia, sale sponsors, reported pennies this year totaled $14.03.

Georgians who have not responded to the 430,000 letters with Easter Seals, mailed this month to persons throughout the State, are asked to mail contributions to Easter Seal Sale offices at 927 Cypress St., N. E. The campaign will continue through Easter Sunday, April 9.

DeKalb Committee Up

When the DeKalb County Democratic Executive Committee fixed its rules for its June 28 primary, Tuesday, it neglected to announce that all 18 members of the Executive Committee must be renominated, a member said. Entrance for candidates for the Committee will be $2.

Israel Held As Miracle By Rabbi

"It's a miracle. Anyway you consider it, Israel's existence is a miracle."

With these words, Rabbi Jacob M. Rothschild told members of Atlanta's Jewish community his impressions of the Jewish republic. He and Rabbi Harry H. Epstein toured the country a few weeks ago on behalf of the Welfare fund of Atlanta.

"An economist will tell you that a country with an import-export ration of 85 percent imports can't exist. Israel has done it for two years," he said.

"Everyone said that the Jews in Palestine couldn't possibly defeat the 42,000,000 Arabs surrounding them. Only the people in the country believed it.

"That all the refugees who are there could have lived through their former persecution, and without funds get to Israel, that is also a miracle. Just the same they are there," said the Rabbi.

The country exists on a narrow margin of safety in its finances," he said. "But when a child is sick, you don't check to see if the ledger is balanced, you call a doctor. That is the Israeli attitude today."

Epstein told the approximately 800 people present of the need to get other Jewish peoples to Israel.

"There are two groups in particular, the now or never, and the disaster groups," he said.

"In the North African countries all Jews must be out by the first of the year, or they will cease to exist. The same goes for those in Iraq. In Poland there are about 15,000 who either leave before Sept. 1, or they can never leave. There are some under the same time limit in Hungary," he said.

'Country' Brown On Vitamin Diet

PENSACOLA, Fla.—The Saturday sports serenade:

The Crackers have purchased several dollars' worth of vitamin B-12 for Country Brown. . . . The lanky outfielder weighs only 161 now and Mgr. Dixie Walker wants him to put on several pounds if possible. . . . The drug is supposed to help him. . . . It is probable Walker will order some for Rusty Morgan also. . . . Like Brown, he is carrying no excess poundage. . . . "I have ordered Country to take it as easy as possible between now and the time the season starts?" Dixie said. . . . "After all, 161 pounds aren't much to start a season with." . . . Pres. Earl Mann and his family left yesterday for Atlanta. . . . So did Hal Aronson and Sec. John Stanton. . . . The club will break camp at 2 o'clock today and leave for New Orleans. . . . Both Morgan and Brown are worried about getting their automobiles back to Atlanta. . . . The team will travel by train on its exhibition swing back home.

Blocking Back Ebba St. Claire, the husky catcher, played semipro football last Fall. . . . He was a blocking back. . . . Norman Brown is still bothered with an injured hand, but the rest of the crippies in camp are rapidly recovering from assorted ailments. . . . Jack Zeller, chief scout of the Boston Braves, who is here in camp, says Connie Ryan is making a serious bid for the second base job this season. . . . His chief competition, of course, is coming from Roy Hartsfield, another ex-Cracker. . . . "Ryan really played fine third base last season after "Bob Elliott was hurt," Jack said, "but he didn't hit too much." . . . The injury to Earl Torgeson, who wrenched a knee, may slow the process of the Crackers getting a first baseman from the Braves. . . . To date, nobody here has heard anything from Chet Hajduk, the missing first sacker . . . The addition of Maryland to Wally Butts' Georgia football schedule makes two former bowl opponents on the program. . . . The Bulldogs and Terps played in the Gator Bowl in 1948. . . . The present Georgia-North Carolina rivalry was born in the disputed Sugar Bowl game a year earlier. . . . Wally also has wanted to schedule Texas since losing to the Longhorns in the Orange Bowl in 1949.

Fishing Prize Larry Lassalle, the kid left-hander from New Orleans, has been troubled with his legs . . . Main cause is the excess weight he is carrying. . . . Coach Whitlow Wyatt has trouble getting him to do enough running and even more trouble keeping him from throwing too much. . . . On the fishing trip Thursday, Walker didn't even wet a hook. . . . He's strictly a rod and reel fisherman and none of that handline stuff for him. . . . But Dixie got a big kick out of the trip and in awarding Harry Raulerson $5 for the largest fish. . . . Best estimates valued the catch at $50, wholesale price. . . . Jack Taylor has been talking about that sensational girls high school player in his home town of Landis, N. C. . . . She stands six feet, seven inches. . . . And is still a growing girl. . . . "She's better than a lot of men I've seen," Jack says. . . . Rusty Morgan, who filled in at first base the other day, cracked: "Tell Hajduk to go back home. . . . We've found a first baseman." . . . to which Walker replied, "You're back on third today, boy." . . . If Rusty is worried about the appearance of Ed Mathews and his work at the plate, he doesn't show it.

Long Talks Walker, Wyatt and Zeller talked for hours Thursday night about players in the Braves' farm system. . . . But Jack says anything regarding help for the Crackers must come from Harry Jenkins, the Boston farm director. . . . However, there are some 300 boys in the Braves' camp at Myrtle Beach, S. C. . . . There are also headaches connected with a pennant-winning team. . . . The Pensacola Fliers got so far out front in the Southeastern League last season they drew only 82,00 fans. . . . And Owner Wally Dashiell lost money. . . . It seems, few were interested in going out and watch the slaughter of all opposition. . . . It takes a close race to keep up interest. . . . Bob Thorpe and Al Aucoin represent the Crackers' right-handed power at present. . . . And most of the help expected from Boston is left-handed. . . . This would indicate that both have good chances to stick with the club and chances are Aucoin will open the season in left field. . . . Ralph Brown, of course, will be in center. . . . And probably Dixie Walker in right. . . . Incidentally, with his 17 years' major league experience, Walker is a picture of a perfect outfielder, getting a jump on the ball and taking it in position to throw.

Radcliffe Shines But Tigers Top Yanks

Reds Pummel Nixon To Down Bosox, 8-2

Tribe Wins on Doby's Homer; Athletics Pull Triple Play

LAKELAND, Fla.—(AP)—The Detroit Tigers pushed over seven runs on five hits in a big sixth inning outburst and it was enough to beat the New York Yankees, 10 to 6, in an exhibition contest.

First Baseman Dick Kryhoski, who came to the Tigers from the Yankees in the Dick Wakefield deal, highlighted the Tiger uprising by clearing the bases with a three-run double.

Rookie Hugh Frank Radcliffe, of Thomaston, Ga., worked the first three innings for the Yankees and yielded only one run. The score was tied 1-1 when Radcliffe, drafted from the Philadelphia Phillies last Winter, gave way to Clarence Marshall in the fourth.

Reds Shell Nixon

SARASOTA, Fla.—(AP)—The Cincinnati Reds combined five hits and three bases on balls for seven runs in the eighth inning to break a 1-1 tie and gain an 8-2 decision over the Boston Red Sox before a 2,092 crowd at Payne Field.

Held to four hits over the first six innings by Lefty Mel Parnell, the Reds uncorked the big uprising against young Willard Nixon.

Tribe Wins, 6-5

SAN DIEGO, Cal.—(AP)—A 450-foot home run by Larry Doby, with Bob Kennedy on first base, enabled the Cleveland Indians to come from behind in the seventh inning and win an exhibition baseball game from San Diego, 6-5.

A crowd of 3,323 saw Doby's blast clear a 15-foot wall in center field, a feat that hadn't been done since Ted Williams clouted one in that spot about 10 years ago. Doby also had a pair of singles.

A's Pull Triple Play

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla.—(AP) The Philadelphia Athletics executed their second triple play of the training season and received 14 bases on balls but needed five runs in the ninth inning to defeat the Buffalo Bisons, 10-9.

The triple play came in the second inning when the International League club had runners on first and second. Bobby Stewart rapped a bounder to Bob Dillinger, who stepped on third for a force out, wheeled and fired to Pete Suder for No. 2. The relay to Ferris Fain at first was in time to catch Stewart.

Bums Bump Bears

VERO BEACH, Fla.—(AP)—Aided by four errors, Brooklyn yesterday shellacked its Southern Association farm club, Mobile, 10-2.

Joe Tepsic, former Penn State athletic star whom Branch Rickey once paid $17,500 to sign with the Dodgers, drove in both Mobile runs. Tepsic hit a home run off Bill McCahan in the second inning and singled off Carl Erskine in the fourth.

Tepsic's homer was the only hit off McCahan in three innings, the former Athletics' righthander again showing evidence that his comeback will be successful.

Braves Break Loose

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla.—(AP)—The Boston Braves snapped a nine-game losing streak with a bang as they handed the St. Louis Cards an 11-1 shellacking.

The Hub City crew pounded three Redbird flingers for 16 base knocks, including a grand slam homer by Bob Elliott and a three-run double by Sid Gordon. Gordon also tripled home a run.

Three second line Brave hurlers, Rookie Dick Donovan, Glenn Elliott and Bob Hall, throttled the Birds with six hits. A hit batsman followed by a double by Enos Slaughter produced their only run in the first.

Phils Blast Nats

ORLANDO, Fla.—(AP)—The Philadelphia Phillies blasted Ray Scarborough and Lloyd Hittle for 16 hits to crush Washington, 13-3, in an exhibition game. Fifteen of the Phillies' hits were singles, Dick Sisler accounting for four of them.

The Phillies nailed Scarborough for six runs in the first inning. They picked up another in the second and added clusters of three off Hittle in the seventh and eighth innings.

Russ Meyer and Ed Wright restricted Washington to six hits. Irv Noren's double and Eddie Robinson's triple gave the Senators a run in the fourth and they added two more in the ninth when Robinson singled and Ed Stewart smashed a home run.

Swatski Hurt

LOS ANGELES, Cal.—(AP)—An exhibition game between the Chicago Cubs and the St. Louis Browns was called off after five innings today because of rain. The score was tied, 6-6.

Cub catcher Carl Sawatski injured his right thumb in grounding a wild pitch thrown by John Klippstein. He probably will be out of action for a week.

The Browns knocked out Klippstein with a four-run barrage in the first inning. They collected 10 hits to eight for the Cubs.

Snead Leads With 66 Card

GREENSBORO, N. C.—(AP)—Picking up where he left off a year ago, defending champion Sammy Snead slammed a 33-33—66 yesterday to lead the first round of the $10,000 Greensboro Open golf tournament by a stroke.

Snead, winner of this tournament three times in the 10 years it has previously been held, needed all his famed power off the tee to gain his slender advantage over burly Clayton Heafner, of Charlotte. The big blond Tar Heel, who once was a pro at this course, had the day's best nine-hole score, an outgoing 32, and he finished with nine pars for 67 and second place.

Smith, Grady, Murphy Triumph As City League Trackmen Open

Warren, Odum Boys Spark Smithies in 94-28 Rout of O'Keefe; Eagles Edge Brown, 65-57

By CHARLIE ROBERTS

"From the cellar to the penthouse, non-stop" is the slogan of Lloyd Kimmel's Smith high trackmen this year, and if the number of cinders they scattered in the eyes of O'Keefe runners yesterday is any indication they should make the long haul in record time.

The Smithies lacerated the Fighting Irish, 94-28, as they helped christen the new Henry Grady Stadium track, but were forced to share the limelight with Grady and Murphy thin-clads in the opening 1950 run-and-heave fest. Perrin Walker's Gray Knights outsped Roosevelt, 89-33, and A. W. Patton's Eagles barely edged Brown, 65-57, the latter competing without the services of Ace Speedster Charlie Ragan, who is injured.

Lawrence Warren, the Smith High comet, was the day's individual star, zipping 16¼ points by winning firsts in the 100, 220 and broad jump and running on Smith's winning relay team, which negotiated the half-mile in 1:34.5, one second off the City League record. Grady Waters, Bobby Odum and Leon Cunningham joined Warren in making up the relay team.

The Odum boys—Bobby, the speedster, and Jack, the muscle man—tallied 12¼ and 12 points, respectively, and Cunningham added 9¼ for Smith.

Johnny Hunsinger, whose 10.5 in the century was the best effort in that event, tied Grady's Billy Mayo at 14¼ points for runner-up scoring honors. Jack Spence, of Grady, piled up 11¼. Joe Webb, of Brown, nine, and Mott Morrison, of Murphy, eight.

Mott Morrison's fine winning 440 romp in 53.5 was only nine-tenths of a second off the Region 3-AA record. Murphy's Jimmy Helms also got away a creditable shot-put heave for this early in the year, a 44-foot, 6¾-inch toss.

GOLF FANS WILL GET GOOD VIEW OF HOGAN MATCH

Hundreds of feet of rope will be stretched around the greens at North Fulton's golf course to fan out the crowd so that everybody will have a vantage point to see Ben Hogan, Dynamite Goodloe, Tommy Barnes and Charlie Harper in Sunday's 18-hole exhibition match, Marshall Mauldin, Fulton County Recreation Director, announced.

Col. Cragie Krayenbuhl has enlisted a corps of marshals to set up the ropes around the greens as well as around the tees. By setting the crowd back a short distance from each green, spectators will have a better chance to see what's going on. The marshals will be on hand to direct the crowd behind the ropes.

Walkers Beat Caseys, 7-4, In Final Game at Pensacola

Atlanta Opens Exhibition Slate Sunday; Squad Is Reduced to 28 Players

By JOHN BRADBERRY
Constitution Sports Editor

PENSACOLA, Fla.—The Crackers celebrated their last intra-squad game of the Spring training season yesterday with an assortment of good and bad pitching, powerful and weak hitting, and a squad cut which left 28 players on hand to make the trip to New Orleans today.

The Walkers won the final game from the Caseys with a four-run power outburst in the first inning and a three-run rally in the last of the eighth, 7-4. Tom Spears and Art Fowler were the pitching victims but both showed plenty the rest of the time, allowing exactly no hits.

Joe Mallott and Norman Brown hurled for the Walkers, with the latter winning, although taking it extremely easy for the five innings he pitched. Each allowed two runs.

Spears, the kid right-hander who won 19 and lost only two while compiling a sensational 1.04 earned run average for Lafayette, La., last season, was making his first start of the Spring. A sore arm had hampered him and it took him an inning to get warmed up.

Gene Verble started the inning with a home run. Hal Shiles singled and then Country Brown pulled one down the right field line for another homer.

Before the inning was over, Tom had been touched for a walk by Ed Matthews and singles by Jim Rivera and Ebba St. Claire for the fourth run of the frame.

Norman Brown took over in the fifth and gave up singles to Walt Singer and Al Aucoin and a triple to Charlie Weathers which cost him two runs. It must be admitted, Brownie was more or less lobbing the ball across as he favored his back and hand injuries. He grew stronger and gave up only two hits and no runs the rest of the way.

Fowler replaced Mallott for the Caseys after four innings and showed the best stuff of all. He fanned the first two men to face him and sailed through the fifth, sixth and seventh easily.

In the eighth, he weakened and allowed three singles and two walks for the three winning runs. Manager Dixie Walker drove in two of them with a single to center with the bases full.

The squad was further reduced yesterday with the farming of Pitchers Bert Heffernan, Paul Jay and Harry Raulerson, Infielder Walt Singer and Outfielders Charlie Weathers, Bo Dempsey and Frosty Kennedy to Pensacola. The latter was sent out on 24-hour recall.

Twenty-two players can be carried, so seven more Crackers must go before the season opens April 14. Three additional will be lopped off after it has run 30 days.

Here are the names of those who will leave camp: Pitchers: Casey, Albers, N. Brown, Fowler, Hartley, Henencheck, Hoover, Linquist, McPherson, Mallott, McMillin, Spears, Taylor, LaSalle, Tompkins. Catchers: St. Claire, McWhorter, Ward. Infielders: Rivera, Scott, Shiles, Verble, Morgan, Mathews. Outfielders: Thorpe, Aucoin, Walker, R. Brown. Coach: Wyatt.

Justice To Talk With Redskins

Condensed From AP, UP and INS Wire Services

Coach Herman Ball, of the Washington Redskins, said yesterday All-America Halfback Charlie (Choo Choo) Justice, of North Carolina, has informed him he will come to Washington for contract talks April 22.

Justice has said many times he does not intend to play pro football. But he told Ball he is willing to listen to any offer the National Football League club makes before making a final decision.

MORE FOOTBALL — Cecil Puckett, University of Mississippi football and basketball player, has withdrawn from the Mississippi school and enrolled at East Tennesee State College. . . . Curley Morrison, Ohio State hero of the Rose Bowl, signed a contract with the Chicago Bears. . . . Washington Redskins signed center Clayton Davis, ex-Oklahoma A&M center.

BASEBALL — Tom Sheehan, twice captain of the Notre Dame baseball team, has been named manager of the Carroll (Iowa) Merchants' Baseball team, an Iowa semi-pro club. . . . Tiny Tony Jacobs, who performed chiefly as a relief hurler for Nashville last year, is scheduled for a starter's berth with 1950 version of the Vols. . . . Two great American sports symbols, the baseball and tennis ball, are wound up in governmental red tape. The problem: All products containing wool must be tagged with a label stating just how much sheep's hair the articles contain. Where can the balls be tagged?

BOXING—Joe Louis will make an announcement tonight concerning his plans for returning to the ring—or remaining in retirement. . . . A Portsmouth, Va., paper reports Louis will become a referee and already Louis' manager has been calling promoters around the country seeking to book Louis as a referee. . . . Billy St. Mary, 90, boxing promoter, died in West Palm Beach, Fla.

Tiger Joe Marsh has signed to meet a Jacksonville referee in a mat battle on equal terms as the result of a chair-swinging rhubarb over the referee's officiating. Marsh was bailed out of jail by Fight Promoter Jimmy Murdock but only after he signed a contract to wrestle Referee Dick Powell, minus the furniture.

RACING — Apprentice jockey Joe Culmone, who has ridden 33 winners in 18 days of Gulfstream's Spring meeting, was set down for 10 days for rough riding in the third race. It was his second suspension. . . . Major racing in the East opens at Laurel (Md.) today when an unprecedented 12-day meeting begins at 2 p. m. . . . Moose Peters was reinstated by the Maryland Racing Commission after a two-year suspension in the Rock Salt shooting of a horse. . . . London bookmakers at their final callover of odds at the Victoria Club kept Freebooter as the 8-1 favorite for the Grand National Steeplechase today at Aintree. . . . Middleground, one of the East's chief Kentucky Derby candidates, arrived at Belmont Park.

ROUNDUP — Gertrude (Gorgeous Gussie) Moran and Mrs. Pat C. Todd advanced to the finals of the women's doubles in the Alexandria (Egypt) International tournament. . . . Sophomore Jackie Taylor and four fancy divers put Ohio State a step ahead of the pack in the twenty-seventh annual NCAA swimming championships at Columbus, Ohio. . . . The historic Poughkeepsie Regatta, top collegiate rowing event in America since the 1890s, will be known as the Marietta Regatta in the future. The Board of Stewards decided to abandon the traditional Hudson River course and hold the 1950 championship three-mile test on the Ohio River at Marietta, Ohio, June 17.

Globetrotters To Hold Over An Extra Day

Due to the tremendous demand for tickets to the Harlem Globetrotters' basketball program at the City Auditorium Sunday afternoon, it has been arranged to hold them over for another program at the Sports Arena on Monday night.

The Sunday afternoon show is a complete sellout of all white-fan tickets and with practically all colored tickets sold also, there are many fans interested in seeing the fabulous colored quintet who were not able to purchase tickets.

Interest in this basketball show featuring the New York Celtics vs. the House of David and the Kansas City Stars playing the Harlem Globetrotters, has reached the highest peak for sport shows in this city and section. Never before have fans clamored so for tickets to a basketball show only to be advised, "sorry, no tickets available."

Rocky Marciano Gains Decision Over La Starza

NEW YORK—(AP)—Rocky Marciano, unbeaten Brockton (Mass.) belter, blasted his way to the top ranks of the heavyweight division last night by gaining a split decision over previously unconquered Roland La Starza, of New York, in a blazing ten rounder in Madison Square Garden. Marciano weighed 183¼, La Starza, 187.

Spring Training High Spots Reviewed

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla.—Florida is a State without any mountains or high hills to speak of. But that doesn't mean this flowered domain has no high spots. In a baseball way, it is full of high spots which we are more than glad to point out.

No. 1. The all-round offensive and defensive power of the Boston Red Sox who still must consider the matter of bench strength and the wildness of young Maurice McDermott, a brilliant prospect, who will be needed. The Red Sox this season may finish with at least six or possibly seven .300 hitters.

No. 2. The twin comebacks of Eddie Waitkus, of the Phillies, and Ewell Blackwell, of the Reds. Waitkus, now recovered, a game, able-fielding first baseman who can hit .300, will be of terrific help to the Phils when the storms break. He is the type of ballplayer every team needs. The tall and stately Blackwell has his famous hurling stuff intact where the sole question gets down to a matter of stamina. The build-up will take a little time. But the Tall Pine still has it. The return of Waitkus and Blackwell will be among the leading features of 1950.

No. 3. Billy Southworth's untroubled reign over Boston's Braves after the stormy 1949 season. Billy may not have the best team in baseball but he has at least a squad that is working together as the manager again takes his place as one of baseball's best. His infield is uncertain and so is his pitching staff, but he will have a run-making outfit that will always be a threat, even if it doesn't return to baseball's pennant peak.

No. 4. The jump Eddie Sawyer, of the Phillies, has made in less than a year to take his place among the game's better leaders: He hasn't let his Phi Beta Kappa key blur his vision or disturb his judgment. He had his Phillies playing the best ball in either league through the final month of the 1949 race and he hopes to have them breaking 1-2-3 this new campaign. Sawyer, with poise, balance, sound judgment and the full respect of his players, will be a thorn in the aching breasts of more than a few opposing managers through 1950.

No. 5. Casey Stengel's terrific Yankee bench again. In addition to an infield composed of Henrich, Coleman, Rizzuto, Johnson, Brown and Stirnweiss, he has two fine-looking rookies in Martin and Brideweiser. In his outfield he has DiMaggio, Bauer, Woodling, Mapes, Wakefield, Jensen, Lindell and Delsing. He is set against fate with the redoubtable Yogi Berra back of the bat. His one major problem is pitching—enough starting pitchers with good control. Joe Page may have another dizzy season ahead, working from 50 to 60 games before the first leaves fall next September.

Murphy Is Dark Horse In 3-AA Baseball Race

By CHARLIE ROBERTS

The fact that Murphy High has more good-looking pitchers than a highway pottery shop is not the only reason the Eagles, who finished a disappointing fifth in the City League last year, are being rated the dark horse in the field of seven in this season's Region 3-AA baseball chase.

A surgeon whose knife last Fall relieved the pain in Joe Willingham's right shoulder may also have carved a championship for the Eagles and their freshman but veteran Coach Gordon (Boots) Payne, formerly of Rossville.

The slim Willingham, whose ailing shoulder kept him at third base and still in the lineup so that his booming bat might beat a merry tune on the outfield fences last year, was one of the best schoolboy pitchers in these parts before being rendered hors de combat. He's ready, able and willing again now.

Even so cautious a coach as Payne admits he has five and possibly six other pitchers who may be able to win if called upon. Ronald Ransom, a varsity member last year; Ray Jones, a Legion standout last Summer; Ivan Barnes, Colvin Heist, Tommy Summers and Jack Hopkins have been finding the strike zone with regularity in drills and practice games at Kirkwood Park for a couple of weeks.

J. W. King, ineligible last season, will be the number one catcher in front of last year's first stringer, Bob Wolff. Maurice (Bubber Bean) Jackson and Ray Brand, who may be shifted to the outfield, are two long-ball hitters who are waging a merry battle for the first base post vacated by Ed Floyd.

Don Henderson, the only left-handed hitter on the squad and one hailed by Payne as "the best natural hitter I have coached in a long time," is back at second base. Bruce Schubele, a standout in 1949, is hitting well and fielding at shortstop as if he owned the park.

Jay Watson, a catcher last time, is outjockeying grounders at third base and proving one of the most dangerous swatsmiths in sight.

Louis Gary, in center; Gene Benton, in left, and Bob Stanley, in right, are three classy outfielders up from the B team, and A. T. Harmon's strong Legion club of last Summer. Gary is an exceptional fielder and has good stick power for a little man.

Jimmy Fischer and Tommy Howell will have a look in if infield relief is needed.

But with the classy all-right-handed pitching corps, good fielding and ample hitting that early drills promise you can list Murphy as strictly first division until further notice. That lean and hungry look in the boys' eyes is a pennant look, in fact.

Al Keller Will Drive Byron's Car

There'll be a new chauffeur at the wheel of "Old Reliable," No. 22, formerly Red Byron's car, in the championship modified stock car races at Lakewood Park tomorrow afternoon.

Slated to replace Byron for Sunday's program only, is Al Keller, of New Rochelle, N. Y., who will be making his first start at the local speedway. Keller is a well-known midget and stock car driver along the New England circuit and currently the champion of both the United Stock Car Racing Association and the American Race Drivers Club, the governing body of midget racing.

In his 10-year career, he has annexed seven championships, mostly in the New York and New England territory. He is a real threat in any race and a consistent winner.

Fulton County Play Set for Final Round

The Fulton County Recreation tournaments will enter their final round Monday night at the South Fulton Park gymnasium.

In games last night, Cooks defeated Peachtree Hills, 16-8, in a midget girls' game; Hapeville trounced Sandy Springs, 34-18, in a midget boys' contest; the Red Devils edged the Black Aces, 16-8, in a junior girls' tilt; Cavaliers whipped the Riders, 54-42, in a men's game and Maryland Casualty overcame the Pilots, 28-26, in a women's contest.

Princeton Soph Breaks Swim Mark

COLUMBUS, O.—(AP)—A 19-year-old Princeton sophomore provided the record breaker and Ohio State's defending champions led the field as the second day of the NCAA swimming meet ended here yesterday.

Robert Brawner, 19-year-old Princeton swimmer established a new mark of 2:14.3 for the 200-yard breaststroke, besting Joe Verdeur, of LaSalle, last year's winner and the old record holder. Brawner's mark was four-tenths of a second better than Verdeur's old standard.

Ohio State carried 31 points into the third day, while Yale was second with 23 and Iowa third with 14.

YOUNG HARRIS PREXY. Charles R. Clegg, President of the North Georgia Vocational School at Clarkesville, will be inducted June 9 as President of Young Harris College. He was incorrectly identified in a picture in yesterday's late editions.

TRADE SCHOOL HEAD— Herbert O. Carlton, Assistant State Director of trade and industrial education, will become President of the North Georgia Vocational School at Clarkesville, succeeding Charles R. Clegg. A switch in pictures in yesterday's late editions erroneously identified Carlton as Clegg.

LIKE HAZARDS

When Child Is Too Good, 'That's Bad'

Look out, parents, that "good" child down the street—the one you wish your Johnny were like—may be heading for mental illness.

When a child is too good, that's bad, Miss Helen Manly, Director of the University City, Mo., elementary schools health, physical education and recreation system, told elementary principals of Georgia.

The child who doesn't play, who is willing to sit still too much, is establishing the "improper play habits" to which many adult mental abnormalities are traceable, Miss Manly said.

"Children enjoy activities which offer a challenge," added Dr. Thom McDonough, Emory University Department of Physical Education and Athletics. "That's why they like to play football. But when parents and teachers change the elements of such games to make them safe for youngsters, they 'dilute' the game!"

"No child," said Miss Manley, "will hurt himself unless he is forced to it by emotions. But sideline pressure—either from adults or from more physicially capable children can cause a child to injure himself."

Marietta Yeggs Seize $1,305

MARIETTA—Yeggs ripped open the safe of the Standard Oil Company here yesterday and hauled away a 150-pound inside vault containing $1,305 in cash, city police reported.

Capt. Jesse Cooper and Lt. Leo Blackwell, who investigated, said the burglary, biggest in the city since a 1940 jewelry store burglary was discovered by William T. Quarles, company bookkeeper.

Police, who were left with scant clues, said at least two intruders used a crowbar to crash the safe door, then rolled the massive iron vault to the old Atlanta Highway where it was apparently loaded into an automobile. Entrance was gained by smashing the rear door lock of the distributing plant located at 123 Butler St.

COURTS AND COUNTY AFFAIRS

Murder Charge Is Asked In 'Playful' Gunsnap

By FRANK MAJORS

An inquest into the fatal shooting of Arthur Garland Adams ,of 1754 Marvin St., S. W., has resulted in a Fulton County Coroner's jury recommending that his brother, Tom Adams, 40, be held for murder.

The 27-year-old Arthur was shot March 7 as he and his brother, dicharged from the Army a few hours earlier, "playfully snapped" a newly purchased pistol, the men's mother told Fulton Dets. A. M. Howle and R. D. Davis.

An inquest into the death scheduled earlier was postponed when Atty. Reuben Garland unsuccessfully sought in Fulton Superior Court to permanently restrain Coroner Ed Almand in the matter. Garland challenged the Coroner's authority to hold inquests into witnessed deaths.

He said Mrs. C. A. Adams was in the room when the gun "accidentally exploded" causing Arthur's death. Mrs. Adams has insisted the shooting was accidental.

The detectives following the inquest yesterday revealed Tom Adams had been released from Fulton Tower on $500 bond posted around March 10. He was being held pending their investigation. The officers said no new warrant has been issued for his arrest.

5-Cent Reward Given

A five-cent reward check has been sent to City Ptl. H. A. Bryan and E. A. Scott as their one-third share in the net proceeds from the sale of a confiscated car. Asst. Sol. C. E. Pressley said the car sold for $40 in front of the Courthouse, and that storage and legal costs had amounted to $39.85. He issued the officers' check for their part of the remaining 15 cents and added 10 cents to the amount going to the County General Fund from this month's sale of 36 automobiles. The officers captured the 1934 coupe and two gallons of moonshine whiskey Jan. 16 at the underpass at Glenn and West Whitehall Streets. They told Pressley they would "frame the check."

Fulton Fines $9,780

Fines totalling $9,780 were levied this week on defendants standing trial in the two Fulton County Criminal Courts. In a weekend summary of their activities, Judges Charles G. Bruce and John S. McClelland were shown to have handled a total of 235 cases. The verdicts as tabulated in the Solicitor's office revealed these results: straight fines, 19; fines and suspended sentences, 113; suspended sentences and probated, 39; straight sentence, 23; not guilty, 17; dead docketed, 10; mistrials, 0; nol prossed 1; bond forfeits, 13. Of the total number 10 were jury trials with six defendants found guilty. The total fine figures does not reveal instances where fine goes unpaid under appeal bond, nor in subsequent reduction in amount.

Released on Bail

Andrew M. Verner, 43, Atlanta restaurant operator, has been released after serving two days of a 20-day contempt of court jail sentence. He was allowed to pay an accompanying $100 cash fine by Superior Court Judge Jesse M. Wood, who had adjudged him in contempt. Wood ordered Verner to obey the terms of a restraining order obtained Monday when his wife, Rosemarie Hegler Verner, of 1630 West Peachtree St., N. E., filed suit for divorce.

Redwine Tells What Is What

State Revenue Commissioner Charlie Redwine has three announcements for Georgians.

First, there will be absolutely no extension of time beyond April 1 for purchase of automobile tags.

Second, Georgians asking an extension of their State income tax deadline needn't worry too much about an answer. Snowed under with 20,000 such applications, the department hasn't the staff to answer these requests spedily. All "reasonable requests" will be granted.

Third, renewal of State liquor store licenses is moving slower this year because the Department is making a "more careful investigation than ever before." About 1,000 dealers have State licenses to be renewed annually.

Hits 15th Hole For Safe Landing

Aviation Enthusiast Pete Swick, of Fort Wayne, Ind., converted the Bobby Jones Golf Club into a landing field.

When the engine of a Piper Cub he was piloting developed trouble, Swick set the plane down softly near the fifteenth hole.

The plane is owned by Southeastern Air Service. Swick was using it to get an aerial view of Atlanta. He plans to move here.

Vinson Backs Bill For Military Bases

WASHINGTON — (UP) — The House Armed Services Committee unanimously approved a top-priority $689,000,000 plan yesterday to build up military bases at home and tighten vital defenses in Alaska and the Far Pacific.

Chairman Carl Vinson, Democrat, Georgia, said he will ask the House to act "as soon as possible" on the construction program. It calls for an outlay of $447,000,000 in 34 States and the District of Columbia, and $229,000,000 outside the United States.

CITY HALL NEWS

Negro Housing Project Hearing Slated Monday

By HERMAN HANCOCK

Erection of 376 new Negro housing units costing $1,500,000 may hinge on results of a conference set for 2 p. m. Monday at City Hall.

Although the property under question, approximately 23 acres just north of Gilliam Park and Woodbine Avenue, S. E., is already zoned, white residents of the area are protesting expansion of the Negro community.

Cecil Ramsey, president of the Ramsey Construction Company which will construct the project, says he is ready to proceed.

He said two corporations are sponsors of the project, Hardee Courts, Inc., proposes to build 96 of the units on approximately 4.5 acres lying between Hardee and Marona Streets, while Wesley Heights, Inc., will construct 280 others adjacent to the Hardee development. John W. Zuber is president of both corporations.

Ramsey said no entrance from the developments into white areas is projected. He added the entrance will be from Mayson Avenue, "already predominantly Negro."

Under the plan, a single bedroom apartment will rent for $35 monthly while two bedrooms can be rented for $42.50 a month.

In addition to Ald. Ed A. Gilliam and Councilman Joe Allen and Lee Field, members of the Second Ward delegation, Mayor Hartsfield is slated to attend the conference along with sponsors.

Personnel Trial Set

The City Personnel Board will hear demands that Hubert Gammon, Waterworks Department meter mechanic and President of Atlanta Waterworks Local No. 359, be dismissed from service at 10 a. m., Thursday, April 6, at the City Hall. Paul Weir, Waterworks Manager, suspended Gammon last week and said he will ask the Board to discharge him. Pierre Howard, attorney, will represent Gammon at the trial. Gammon has filed an answer to charges that he failed to substantiate charges of irregularities in operation of the department and that he refused to observe division rules. The answer says Gammon will prove the charges and that he will also contend he has conformed with departmental requirements. Aubrey Milam, Gus Harper and Howard See are the three members of the Personnel Board before whom Gammon will plead his case.

Mayor Views Slums

Mayor Hartsfield accompanied by Aldermen Roscoe Ailor and L. O. Moseley and Councilmen Lee Field and Douglas Wood yesterday surveyed what the Mayor characterized as "rental slums" near City Hall. The Mayor last night attended a dinner party.

Ald. Gilliam Better

Ald. Ed A. Gilliam, chairman of City Council's Police Committee, is recuperating from a combination virus and stomach ailment at his home, 30 Rogers Ave., S. E.

Subversive Aid List Lost

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A list of politicians—including Representatives and Senators—who contributed to or corresponded with an organization now on the subversive list is mysteriously missing.

This came to light yesterday while Matthew Cvetic, former FBI undercover agent, was testifying before the House Un-American Activities Committee.

'La Boheme' Slated Over WCON Today

By RITA VAN PELT

All good things must come to an end . . . and so we come to the final broadcast of the season's Metropolitan Opera matinee series with this afternoon's airing of "La Boheme" at 2 o'clock over WCON-ABC.

Principals in Puccini's popular four-act opera will be Licia Albanese, soprano, as "Mimi," and Richard Tucker, tenor, as "Rodolfo." Giuseppe Antonicelli will conduct the Metropolitan Opera Orchestra and Milton Cross will be in his regular spot as commentator.

NBC Symphony

Arturo Toscanini and the NBC Symphony Orchestra (slated for an Atlanta performance on April 22) will present an unusually enjoyable program on WSB-NBC this p. m. at 6:30. Selections slated for the broadcast are the Richard Strauss tone poem, "Don Juan," Prokofiev's "Classical Symphony" and "Danse Macabre," by Saint-Saens.

Comic Opera

Lyric soprano Nancy Carr and bass John Barclay will be co-starred in Gilbert and Sullivan's "Yeomen of the Guards" when that enjoyable comic opera comes to the air as a Chicago Theater of the Air presentation tonight at 10. With Robert Trendler conducting the orchestra and chorus and Col. Robert R. McCormick presenting his intermission address by short-wave from Paris, the program will reach listeners via WGST-MBS.

Pint-Sized Guest

Les Henrikson will have on his WCON Kid All-Request program this morning at 9:30 a pint-sized personality kid, name of Johnnie Lankford. Johnnie, who is 3 goin' on 4, sings pop songs, recites "pomes," and is an avid Boston Red Sox fan. Besides singing "I Said My P'jamas," he will be interviewed by Les on what he thinks of the American League pennant race.

The Goldbergs

Molly Goldberg takes to jury duty like a duck takes to water during that WAGA-CBS broadcast tonight at 8:30. Seems Molly has a "very reasonable" doubt of the guilt of the defendant.

TV Talk

Viewers of the WSB-TV Who Said That? program tonight at 9:05 will see an eminent trio of guest panelists catching the quotes tossed by Bob Trout. They are H. V. Kaltenborn, dean of American news commentators; Lillian Hellman authoress, and music critic Deems Taylor.

A trio of screwballs—Moe and Curly Howard and Larry Fine—pos. as network program execs bent on making program changes when they visit the WAGA-TV Ed Wynn Show tonight at 9. Songstress Helen Forrest adds that "one touch of Venus" to the program.

RICE TRUSS EXPERTS
COMING TO ATLANTA TO DEMONSTRATE
GRAND NEW SUPPORT

The Rice Rupture Service Experts, personal representatives of William S. Rice, Inc., Adams, N. Y., will be at the Clermont Hotel, Atlanta, Ga., from Monday morning, March 27 through Wednesday evening, March 29. Every ruptured person should take advantage of this great opportunity.

The Rice Method for Reducible Rupture Control is known the world over. You can now see this Method demonstrated and have a Rice Appliance fitted to you. Absolutely no charge unless you are satisfied to keep the Outfit after having the Appliance adjusted and you see how perfectly and comfortably it holds. No harsh, deep-pressing springs; nothing to gouge the flesh and make you sore.

Wear this Appliance for a full 30-day trial and if you are not perfectly satisfied at the end of that time, return it.

Thousands have reported entire satisfaction through using the Rice Appliance. Why suffer the burden of reducible rupture worry if there is a chance to be free from it? Anyway, it will cost you nothing to come in and learn all about the Rice Method and the wonderful opportunity for help it offers. Just ask at hotel desk for the Rice Representatives and they will do the rest. Hours are 10 to 12 a.m., 2 to 5 p.m. or 7 to 8 evenings.

Don't miss this great opportunity to see these Experts.

MRS. LOUIS E. TOLBERT, JR.

Mr. and Mrs. Adren Earl Cooper, of Little Rock, Ark., announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Addie Jane Cooper, to Dr. Louis Edmond Tolbert, Jr., of Atlanta, which took place yesterday in Memphis. The Rev. William M. O'Donnell, Chaplain of Methodist Hospital, officiated.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Christine Cooper, as maid of honor. Mr. Tolbert, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Tolbert, of Atlanta, was attended by Sid Richardson, Jr., of Villa Rica, as best man.

The bride attended Bryan University in Chattanooga. Dr. Tolbert completed his premedical work at Emory University, and received his medical degree from the University of Tennessee College of Medicine. He belongs to the Alpha Kappa Kappa medical fraternity.

The newlyweds will reside at Greenwood, Miss., until July 1 when Dr. Tolbert will begin his internship at Crawford Long Hospital in Atlanta.

Caraway Seed Cheese Bread

By AGNES REASOR OLMSTEAD
Constitution Home Economics Editor

This new Caraway Cheese Bread is delightfully different and handsome to serve. Shredded cheddar cheese, which is one of the makings, melts and blends in the baking, imparting delicious cheese flavor, mellow color and a sparkling look to the loaf. Caraway seeds which have a special affinity for cheese, point up the flavor and add pleasant texture interest.

Caraway Cheese Bread is simple as can be to make. As in making muffins, the liquids are stirred nto the dry ingredients until just blended This makes the top of the loaf have an interesting and slightly bumpy appearance. The bread browns magnificently, has fine texture and slices beautifully even when hot from the oven.

This good cheese loaf is a fine bread for service at any meal. It adds a glamorous touch to the dinner menu. It is wonderful to serve with soups or salads for luncheon, or for use in making sandwiches. It toasts splendidly, too, and is a flavorful accompaniment for the breakfast eggs!

CARAWAY CHEESE BREAD

2 cups sifted flour
½ teaspoon soda
¾ teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons baking powder
¼ pound cheddar cheese, shredded (1 cup)
1 tablespoon caraway seeds
1 cup evaporated milk
1 tablespoon vinegar
1 egg, slightly beaten
1 tablespoon butter, melted

Sift dry ingredients together. Add caraway seeds and cheese and stir to distribute rather evenly. Combine milk and vinegar with beaten egg, then add to flour mixture with the melted fat. Stir only until dry ingredients are just moistened. (Batter will be stiff and fairly lumpy.) Pour into a small greased loaf pan (9"x5"x3"). Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) until done, about 50 minutes. Makes one small loaf.

Tau Epsilon Phi Plans Anniversary

Notables at the banquet will include Joe Gerson, President of the Georgia TEP Alumni; and Joe Ginburg, Grand Consul of the national fraternity. Master of Ceremonies and Chairman of the affair are Gene Asher and Richard Garber, respectively.

Visitors and fraternity brothers from University of Georgia, Emory and Georgia Tech will attend.

Miss Austin Weds in Decatur

MRS. JAMES W. BOGART

Mr. and Mrs. Emery M. Austin announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Beverly Ann Austin, to James William Bogart, both of Decatur, which was solemnized at Holy Trinity Episcopal Church, Decatur, yesterday, with the Rev. Harry Tisdale officiating.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a navy suit with gray accessories. She carried a white prayer book topped with gardenias.

The bride's only attendant was the groom's sister, Mrs. Francis Schmidt, who wore a navy and chartreuse dress with navy accessories and carried pink flowers., The best man was Cyril Musser.

The bride is a graduate of Decatur Girls High and is now connected with Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company. The groom, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul T. Bogart, is a graduate of Liberty High School, Kansas City, Mo. He is now employed by General Motors Corporation.

The couple will reside in Decatur.

Spiced whipped cream is delicious on apple pie, apple betty, baked custard and many other desserts. To make it just add a dash of cinnamon, nutmeg and cloves along with the sugar and vanilla you usually use to flavor the cream.

Topped Gowns, Shorn Hair At Academy Award Dinner

By GLORIA YARBROUGH

HOLLYWOOD—(AP)—Strapless evening gowns and very short haircuts were the rule at Hollywood's biggest fashion show—the Academy Award dinner.

Very low cut gowns on Susan Hayward and Janet Leigh brought whistles from the crowd.

Susan, in strapless black, had an ermine cape thrown about her shoulders.

Ginger Rogers brought screams of admiration from her fans as she appeared in a long ermine coat, over a filmy white gown. She wore a double strand of pearls which, by the way, were as much in evidence this year as diamonds.

The extremely short boy haircut and pearls were the only evidences of the back-to-the-twenties style 'rend.

No one boasted the New York-avocated "doe eyes" — black pencil make-up under and over the eyes.

Gracious Loretta Young wore a throat-hugging gown of pink taffeta, with an orchid pinned high. Mrs. Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., looked continental in a Parisian gown with winged collar.

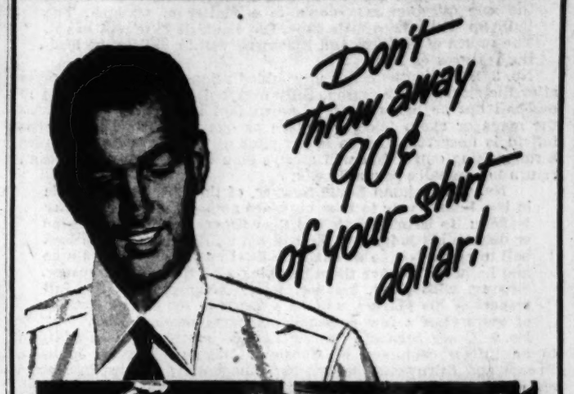

The oldest gown at the affair was Mercedes McCambridge's 13-year-old "good luck" dress. She calls it that because she wore it when she won her first dramatic scholarship, when she won her first dramatic award and when she met her husband, Fletcher Markle, studio executive.

Olivia de Havilland arrived on the arm of her husband, Marcus Goodrich, looking lovely in a white organdy gown embroidered with black sequin daisies.

Red-haired Arlene Dahl made a colorful spectacle when she appeared in a bright pink taffeta coat and pink ne dress. Striking also were a vivid yellow coat, dress and shoes worn by Mrs. John Lund.

Tuxes for men were the rule —except Gene Autry, who breezed in wearing a white suit with cowboy boots and hat.

Just to make the color scheme complete, he sang "Lavender Blue."

Red Cross Volunteer :-: :-: Performs Many Tasks :-: :-: In Day at Grady

Mrs. Helen (James) Wimberly, one of 36 Red Cross nurse's aides at Grady Hospital, does everything from bathing to feeding patients. In first photo, she greets small boy in the surgery clinic. Next she gives Mrs. Eliza "Granny" Robertson a drink. Then she gives an ailing infant his bottle as she combs David Bragg's hair.

'COULDN'T DO WITHOUT HER'

Big Need for Little Services

By KATHERINE BARNWELL

Snowy-haired, 85-year-old "Granny" Robertson, confined to a bed at Grady Hospital, ceremoniously kissed the hand of Nurses Aide Helen Wimberly and freebly proclaimed:

"I couldn't do without her!"

Mrs. Wimberly, gentle and efficient in her starched blue uniform, smoothed the linen on "Granny's" bed, combed her silky fine hair, held a glass of water for her and patted her wrinkled cheek.

"Granny is one of our sweetest patients," she said.

Personal, helpful, comforting services to patients like "Granny" at Grady are made possible by Red Cross volunteers like Mrs. Wimberly.

Some 75 Red Cross nurses aides and staff aides are now on the rolls at Grady.

They do everything from clerical work in clinics to feeding and "burping" babies in the children's ward.

"They're pretty wonderful," insists Miss Lillian Bischoff, Director of Nursing service.

Miss Bischoff explained Grady had sufficient personnel to supply the essentials of nursing care but the hospital did not have enough staff nurses to do "those little comforting things which patients want and need."

She said nurses aides, who feed patients, give bed baths, change linen and otherwise work for the patient's comfort, last month gave 443 hours of service at Grady.

Miss Bischoff pointed out that many of the Red Cross volunteers at Grady were business women who worked two or there hours at night several times a week. She added more trained volunteers "could be used."

Besides staff aides, who do clerical work and help keep clinic records, and nurses aides, a group of Red Cross "gray ladies" is always on the job at Grady. They run errands for patients, read to them and write letters for them.

"Our work here is immensely satisfying," summed up Mrs. Wimberly. "We are needed so terribly, and the patients are so grateful for every little thing we do for them."

ATTENTION RENTAL PROPERTY OWNERS

The Ordinance and Legislation Committee of City Council has set a Public Hearing on Rent Control to be held in the Council Chamber at 2 P. M. on Wednesday, April 5.

The primary question to be determined at this time will be the supply of rental accommodations in the area including chiefly family units such as apartments, houses and duplexes.

If you wish to assist in removing this last remaining War Time control from your property you can do so by furnishing us with accurate information regarding rental vacancies of which you have definite knowledge.

We are especially interested in rental units which are currently being withheld from the market because of rent control and any potential units that might be added in the event controls are removed.

This information is to be used only to support our contention that decontrol of rents can be accomplished in this area without undue hardship on any group. Please send all available information to:

Brussels Battered By Riots

BRUSSELS — UP — Rioting anti-Leopold strikers clashed with police in Brussels yesterday as some 500,000 Belgian workers tied up half the nation in a one-day walkout to demand the abdication of exiled King Leopold III.

Mobs roamed the city, overturning and smashing 100 streetcars, breaking shop windows, and attempting to storm the Stock Exchange. Ten thousand students paraded, shouting "abdicate" and "Leopold to the stake."

An estimated 35 persons were injured in the Brussels rioting, two seriously. No serious incidents were reported from the provinces.

In the four anti-Leopold provinces of industrial South Belgium, the Socialist-called strike closed down industries, shops, transportation, post-offices and schools.

As the crisis over Leopold's proposed return deepened, Prince Regent Charles was reported preparing to name a new premier-designate who would try to form a government favorable to the King.

The former premier-designate, Catholic Count Henri Carton de Wiart, quit yesterday and announced that a "national" solution to the royal problem was virtually impossible.

Yelling crowds of strikers and students tore down trolley lines and stoned Brussels streetcars when pro-Leopold Catholic workers and liberal unionists tried to break the transit strike.

Only 100 of the city's 1,500 streetcars ventured out on their runs. Brussels has no subways or buses.

Some 300 students tried to storm the stock exchange. But a line of gendarmes, armed with rifles, truncheons and tear-gas bombs, repulsed the assault.

More than a thousand students demonstrated on Brussells' "Times Square" and roughed up police.

Quitting Post, VoorheesSays

Tracy S. Voorhees, who last month addressed the Atlanta Rotary Club while spending a weekend as the guest of Robert B. Troutman, Sr., is resigning his post as Undersecretary of the Army.

Tracy Voorhees

The resignation, which Voorhees attributes to the strain of public service, was accepted by President Truman in Key West, Fla. It is to be effective not later than June 30.

Before assuming his post as Undersecretary, Voorhees engaged in private law practice in New York.

Armed Group Favors Keeping Hospital Open

AUGUSTA—(AP)—The Chairman of a House Armed Services Subcommittee said yesterday the group will recommend that Oliver General Hospital be continued in operation.

Rep. L. Mendel Rivers, Democrat, South Carolina, Chairman of the subcommittee holding a hearing here, made the statement after only two witnesses had protested the closing of the hospital would have a disastrous effect on Army medical service in the Southeast.

"I am sure we will have ample evidence to warrant a recommendation to have the hospital kept open," Rep. Rivers said.

The two witnesses heard were Gov. J. Strom Thurmond, of South Carolina, and Col. H. S. Villars, commandant of the hospital.

Each expressed the belief that irreparable harm to security and morale would be the outcome should Oliver General and other institutions be closed under Defense Secretary Johnson's recent economy order.

"With the critical situation facing the world today, we cannot see how the Army could consider closing Oliver General Hospital," Gov. Thurmond said.

Members of the subcommittee arrived here yesterday from Jacksonville on a tour of military facilities ordered closed by Johnson.

Oliver General has been ordered closed June 30.

Whipping Case Postponed Here

Trial of a Fulton County Negro schoolteacher, charged with disorderly conduct for allegedly whipping students with a leather strap, has been postponed "indefinitely," according to East Point Recorder's Court records.

Clerk of the court said the postponement order came from East Point Police Chief W. H. Tyler, who was away from his desk yesterday. No reason was given, but it was understood the case was postponed "by agreement of all parties concerned."

Captured Convicts Face Assault Cases

After deputies broke up another escape attempt, Fulton County Sheriff A. B. "Bud" Foster said a charge of assault with intent to murder would be brought against two recently captured Fulton Tower fugitives.

Deputies last night found hacksaw blades smuggled into a cell occupied by Herman Webb, recently sentenced in Fulton Superior Court to 14 years in prison as the "Silk Stocking Bandit."

Foster said Webb was placed in a double cell in the "two-north" section. The cell also is occupied by John Carrigan under death sentence for murder, and Joe Lee Bishop, long-term prisoner for robbery.

The two, Joseph Mauldin and Earl Taylor, 22, were captured by a town marshall at Westwego, La., and returned to the tower by Foster. They, with Roy Mauldin, Eston Anderson and L. J. Masters, seized and bound Williams and made their escape from a fourth-floor cell.

In addition, Foster said Mauldin and Taylor will face Federal charges of transporting a stolen automobile across State lines.

Harold Laski, Labor Party Brain, Dies

LONDON—(UP)—Prof. Harold J. Laski, 56, noted political scientist and leader of the British Labor Party's intellectual wing, died here last night.

Laski, a former chairman of the party's executive committee, died at 7:30 p. m. in St. Mary's Hospital in Paddington.

He had been ill 48 hours with bronchial pneumonia. During the past several months, he had been in ill health and was advised by his doctor to take a complete rest for six months.

W. T. DeBorde Dies of Injuries

SAVANNAH — (AP) — An automobile brought death to one of Savannah's pioneer automobile dealers.

He was William Thomas De Borde, Sr., 76, an agent for Mormon vehicles here when the auto industry was in its infancy. He was struck down Monday while taking a stroll after dinner. He died at noon yesterday of his injuries, the seventh local traffic fatality of the year.

Arnold W. Hendrix, Savannah, driver of the auto which struck De Borde, automatically will face involuntary manslaughter charges.

De Borde is survived by six sons, Richard J. De Borde and Frederick J De Borde, of Savannah; William T. De Borde, Jr., Shelby J. De Borde, John E. De Borde, and David E. De Borde, of Columbia, S. C.; four daughters, Mrs. Harry P. Palmer, Mrs. Michael Counihan and Mrs. Nicholas Galletto, of Savannah, and Mrs. William Beet, Macon; two brothers, Ernest De Borde, Atlanta, and Arthur De Borde, Miami, Fla.; 10 grandchildren, and several nieces and nephews.

Racial Slander Case Nets 6 Acquittals

Constitution State News Service

VALDOSTA—A Federal Court jury last night cleared six Lowndes Countians of slander charges in a $300,000 suit which grew out of a racial dispute. The jury deliberated less than two hours.

The six defendants had been charged with slander and one had been charged with maliciously obtaining a miscegenation (intermarriage of whites and other races) warrant against George White and his wife, Dollie Seay White.

Murrel Holderby, Mrs. Lillie Holdderby, C. C. Gay, W. J. Arnold, J. H. Duke and Eddie Shiver had been named defendants in the suit.

The Whites had filed the suit on behalf of themselves and their four minor children, asking $50,000 each for alleged damages to their reputation and social standing as a result of charges made by the defendants to the Lowndes County Board of Education that the childrens' mother was one-fourth Negro.

Youth Is Surprised In Building, Jailed

Joe Stone, 18, Negro, of 752 Smith St., S. W., today was held at City Jail on suspicion of burglary after a private detective said he surprised the youth in a building at 560 Tift Ave., S. W.

Walter Davis, of Southern Detectives, Inc., said he apprehended the Negro in the New Method Laundry Building. Dets. W. E. Petty and H. F. Brown quoted Stone as saying he "had been told I could get $1,000 there."

Dr. Kirkpatrick Seeks Baby's Name

Dr. Dow Kirkpatrick, pastor of the Methodist Church at Young Harris, and Mrs. Kirkpatrick, are looking for a name for their new son, born yesterday at Emory University Hospital.

This is the second son for the Kirkpatricks. "Chippy," the other son, is six years old. His father, in addition to being Young Harris pastor, is an instructor at Young Harris College.

MEN
I could never begin to put in writing the real meaning of this opportunity. It is difficult to write an ad that will attract attention of good men, due to the fact that so many advertisements appear in the paper. Our business is wonderful and getting better every day. Our men are happy in their work, making from $100 to $200 per week. I could list 50 names, but it would only take up a lot of space. It doesn't matter what line of work you have been following. If you are out of a job or searching for something better than you now have, here is a lifetime opportunity that I will prove to you pays more money on our liberal dealer discount setup than any proposition in the country. Our deal is brand-new; an entirely new invention in the electrical appliance field that is amazingly different.

Late Selling Drive Stops Recovery Move in Stocks

NEW YORK—(AP)—A selling flurry late Friday blocked an attempted rally in the stock market. Closing prices showed a clear majority of losses, but most quotations were above the lows of the day.

Losses were taken at the opening when a pronounced selling drive hit the market for loss of fractions to around a point. Just before midday traders threw off some of their caution and started to buy. The rally, labored though it was, progressed most of the afternoon.

Trading started off with a rush but slowed almost immediately. Turnover reached a rate of about 1,500,000 shares for the full session. Oil stocks attracted considerable buying interest.

News that Chrysler Corporation had made another offer to its workers to settle a strike now nearly two months long had no appreciable effect. Chrysler was either unchanged to ⅛ or so lower most of the time.

Tending to hang back slightly were United States Steel, Studebaker, United States Rubber, J. I. Case, American Telephone, American Smelting, Allied Chemical, Southern Pacific and Lehigh Portland Cement.

Zenith Radio, a strong favorite during the past two days, dropped 1⅛ points to 56½ at the opening but came back for a net gain of 2 points or so later.

Others up included Woolworth, Admiral Corporation, Emerson Radio, Standard Gas & Electric $4 preferred, Western Union, duPont, Dow Chemical, Philip Morris, Richfield Oil, Standard Oil (N. J.), Texas Company, Superior Oil of California, Transcontinental & Western Air, and Warner Bros. Pictures.

Railway issues slanted a bit lower in the bond market. U. S. governments held steady in over-the-counter dealings.

Lower in the Curb were Pantepec Oil, Raytheon Mfg., Royalite Oil, Standard Power & Light, United Light, Long Island Lighting (new), Electric Bond & Share, Claude Neon, and Arkansas Natural Gas "A."

National Bellas Hess improved, along with United Shoe Machinery, Pennroad, Kirby Petroleum, Crosley Motors, and American Republics.

Wall Street on the whole is well satisfied with the handy way in which the market has absorbed heavy doses of profit taking since new peaks for the 1949-50 bull move were established last week and again this week.

Selling Wave Depresses Bonds

NEW YORK—(AP)—The emphasis was on selling Friday in a slowly declining corporate bond market.

Business was slow and for the first time this week trading fell behind the pace of the previous session.

Railroad bonds fell a bit behind and at the beginning of the final trading hour losses in the group held a substantial margin over gains. Most losses were small, however, with only a handful of obligations moving as much as a point from Thursday's levels.

Six Missouri Pacific Railroad liens were fractionally lower going into the last hour. Other rails off fractions to a point included Jamestown, Franklin & Clearfield 4s, New Orleans, Texas & Mexico 5½s, Pittsburgh & West Virginia "C" 4½s, Seaboard Air Line income 4½s and Southern Pacific 4½s of '81.

N. Y. Cotton Irregular In Slow Dealing

NEW YORK—(AP)—Cotton futures were irregular in slow dealings Friday. Most traders held to the sidelines, awaiting clarification of legislation at Washington affecting cotton. This included the bill to increase cotton acreage allotments, funds for the ECA program and further appropriations for the CCC farm support program. Old crop futures were supported by mill buying and short covering which found offerings limited. There was further profit-taking in the new crop months.

Private Atlanta advices noted some improvement in mill buying of spot cotton, but the volume of business remained small, consisting mostly of fill-in lots for shipment during the next 30 to 60 days.

Memphis said that mills continued to hold off purchases, except for small fill-in lots. The advices said offerings of free cotton and loan equities were limited.

Certificated cotton stocks decreased 524 bales and now totaled [illegible],382 bales.

Futures closed 25 cents a bale lower to 10 cents higher than the previous close.

ATLANTA SPOT COTTON

Reported Friday by Atlanta Cotton Exchange in co-operation with USDA.

Quotations are for mixed lots equal to official standards, uncompressed in warehouses. Basis middling 15/16ths-inch 32.40 per pound (unchanged from previous close). This is up 30 on New York May futures which closed at 32.09. Number of bales purchased, 615.

(USDA)—Atlanta spot cotton, middling one inch, Friday, 33.65.

Athens spot cotton, middling one inch and longer, 33.30.

Rome spot cotton, middling one inch and longer, 33.25.

AVERAGE COTTON PRICE

NEW ORLEANS—(AP)—The average price of middling 15/16-inch cotton Friday at 10 designated Southern spot markets was five cents a bale lower at 31.81 cents a pound; average for the past 30 market days, 32.09; middling ⅞-inch average, 30.31.

CASH GRAIN

CHICAGO—(AP)—Spot wheat was quotably higher with the futures market Friday; basis unchanged; receipts 25 cars. Corn was higher also; basis unchanged to firmer; bookings 10,000 bushels; receipts 72 cars. Oats were up; basis unchanged to easier; receipts 30 cars. Soybeans receipts were eight cars.

Wheat: None. Corn: No. 3 yellow 1.34-36½; No. 4, 1.33-33½. Oats: No. 1 heavy mixed 80¼; No. 1 mixed 79; sample grade heavy mixed 79¾; No. 1 heavy white 80½-81½; No. 1 white 79¼-80¼. Barley nominal; malting 1.25-55; feed 1.00-15. Soybeans: None.

COFFEE MARKET

NEW YORK—(AP)—Santos coffee futures moved up as much as one cent a pound Friday on commission house and dealer buying which in turn induced short covering. Steadiness in the spot market was an influence. Spot coffee was steady but quiet. Coffee Santos spot No. 4 closed at 46½n. Santos bourbons 3s at 47.10-60a an d5s 44.85-45.35a. Chrysler Rejected On Pension Offer

DETROIT—(UP)—Chrysler Corporation, making its first major concession toward ending the 59-day strike of 89,000 CIO United Auto Workers, offered yesterday to put $30,000,000 in a UAW pension fund.

The Union rejected the proposal.

POULTRY

ATLANTA POULTRY

'Red Feather' Agencies Get Central Home

Most of the Atlanta Community Chest's 19 noninstitutional agencies will be housed under a single roof at 167 Walton St., N. W., by the end of the year.

Ivan Allen, Jr., President of the Chest for 1950, said the move would save thousands of dollars in administrative costs and at the same time enable the Chest to give more efficient and effective service.

Allen made it clear that the Chest's acquisition of the building and parking lot adjoining was made possible through the generosity of Ben J. Massell, Atlanta real estate operator.

The building, owned by Massell and valued at approximately $350,000, was turned over to the Chest as a partial gift, Allen said.

S. Ga. Rate Cut On Power Asked

The Georgia Public Service Commission has ordered the Georgia Power and Light Company to show cause May 11 why it cannot reduce its rates.

This firm serves 17 South Georgia counties.

WHAT TO EXPECT TODAY
Sun in Aries

General Tendencies—This is one of the really good days of this month, although you may not believe this until about the middle of the afternoon. Any deception or unfriendliness is behind you, however, and everything ahead of you should be cheerfully and optimistic. Urge yourself into a settled frame of mind and avoid the little details which could interfere with yo· poise just now. This ought to be an excellent evening for all social affairs, any parties becoming quite exuberant and maybe expensive.

If It's Your Birthday—Looks to me as if you were getting ready to make really important changes in your life — events which would take time and money and create some lasting impression. Watch the month of June for some of this and see if you do not feel in an unsettled mood at that time. Be cautious about breaking up home ties, because it might not be easy to get back upon the same old footing again in case you might experience a change of heart later on. Sometimes you are fickle, you know.

The bidding:

East	South	West	North
1 ♠	3 ♦	Pass	3 NT
Pass	4 ♦	Pass	5 ♦
Pass	Pass	Pass

Opening lead: Nine of spades.

Complaints about losses caused by bad distribution should fall upon unsympathetic ears if those losses could easily have been avoided. When a hand appears on the surface to be ironclad, that is the time to look around for possible accidents and to guard against this occurrence. That is the creed of the safety play.

The bidding of today's hand was reasonable enough. A comment is perhaps in order on South's jump overcall of three diamonds. Obviously it was intended as a strength-showing bid. It is not, however, forcing. If partner has nothing, he is permitted to pass, but he is asked to make every effort to dig up a bid. Some players do not use the jump overcall to show strength, but employ it for preemptive purposes. This is entirely a partnership matter and it is well for players to have an understanding upon this point. Those who use the jump overcall merely as a nuisance bid are obliged to double on all good hands regardless of the fact that the strength is concentrated principally in one suit.

The nine of spades was opened and declarer took it with the ace. He forthwith led a trump, which East took with the ace and a spade return was ruffed by West. The ace of clubs was the setting trick. This was negligence of the first order. Declarer didn't play East for a six-card spade suit because it had never been rebid. He seems to have lost sight of the fact that East never really had a chance to rebid, because when it came his second turn to call, he would have had to contract for 10 tricks.

The only thing that could cause the defeat of the contract was a ruff. Now a six-card suit in a hand of a person who has made a bid can hardly be termed a fantastic holding. So declarer should have protected himself against this holding by winning the first trick in dummy with the king of spades, cashing the ace of hearts, upon which the ace of spades should be shed. In addition to being good business it is also good drama. There is nothing quite so disturbing to enemy morale as the discarding of an ace. Now when East is in with the ace of trumps he may return a spade, but declarer can ruff high enough to insure winning the trick and then only the ace of clubs need be lost.
